Lincoln Girl Killed In Accident

Cars Reported Racing At Time

Constance Lane, 17, Is Victim; Driver Hospitalized After Wreck

By Sam Hall

A 17-year-old Lincoln girl, Constance Lane of 2252 Smith, was killed Monday night when the car in which she was riding overturned one-quarter mile east of Hwy. 77 on the first section road south of the city limits.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lane.

The State Safety Patrol said she was a passenger in a car driven by John E. Olney, 17, of 1301 Piedmont. Olney was reported in good condition at Providence Hospital.

Another car, driven by Bill Wertz, 18, of 4125 High, was damaged at the same time and place as the Olney auto. It was not determined whether the two cars collided, officers said.

County Attorney Elmer Scheele said it was reported the two cars were racing.

Wertz was uninjured.

Both cars came to rest on the Rock Island tracks, apparently only minutes after the eastbound Rocket had passed, investigators said.

Dirt Road

The accident happened on a short stretch of dirt road connecting the old Hwy. 2 cutoff where it turns south, and Hwy. 77.

Scheele said the two cars apparently missed the curve on the paved cutoff and went straight on the dirt road, which drops off rapidly to the tracks.

The car in which the Lane girl was riding went off the road 450 ft. east of its final resting place, the Patrol said. The car came to rest on its top on the Rock Island railriod tracks. The victim was thrown about 37 ft. clear of the wreckage, officials said.

The Wertz auto came to rest upright on the tracks on the left side of the road. Young Wertz ran to the highway 2 cutoff and flagged down a passing auto.

The patrol estimated that the accident occurred about 9:30 p.m.

Pinned Under Car

The death auto had to be jacked up to free Olney, who was pinned under the wreckage, officers said.

Scheele said that an autopsy would be performed. The county attorney also said that an inquest may be held into the incident.

The death raises the state's traffic toll to 241 as compared to 217 on this date a year ago. The 1958 Lancaster County toll now stands at 8.

Justice Burton Quits

Retirement From Supreme Court Is Approved

Washington (AP) — Harold H. Burton is retiring as an associate justice of the Supreme Court, effective Oct. 13.

The White House announced Monday that President Eisenhower had received a request from Burton for retirement and had approved it with great regret.

Burton

Burton, 70, wrote Eisenhower he was stepping down from the high tribunal "with regret but in accordance with competent medical advice and with a desire to serve the best interests of all concerned."

Burton, a former U. S. senator from Ohio, is a Republican. He was appointed to the court by President Truman on Oct. 1, 1945.

Burton's retirement came as the court started its fall term Monday.

With the 8 other members of the court, he joined only last week in reaffirming the tribunal's school integration ruling.

The retirement means Eisenhower now will fill the 5th high court vacancy to occur since he took office in 1953.

Majority

This forthcoming selection will put an Eisenhower majority on the court, to one Truman appointee and 3 named by Franklin D. Roosevelt.

There was no immediate indication as to whom Eisenhower might name. Mrs. Anne Wheaton, associate White House press secretary, said she had no information as to when a successor will be named, either.

In recent years, whenever there was a vacancy on the court the names of former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and former Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell have popped up regularly. However, both are generally considered not interested these days.

Eisenhower has named Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices John M. Harlan, William J. Brennan and Charles Evans Whittaker.

Truman named Tom Clark in addition to Burton. Roosevelt's selections remaining are Hugo L. Black, Felix Frankfurter and William O. Douglas.

Burton and Truman were personal friends and served together on the old Senate War Investigating Committee which first brought Truman to national notice.

Snyder 'Fair' After Crash

Ralph Snyder, 44, of 4519 Gladstone was listed in "fair" condition at St. Elizabeth's Hospital Monday night after a one-car accident at 48th between Fremont and Cornhusker Highway.

Police said Snyder received a broken left cheek bone, a broken left knee cap and possible broken ribs, when his car struck an abutment on the CB&Q underpass.

Crete Man Hurt Slightly In Crash

A 22-year-old Crete man received minor injuries in a two-car collision at 20th and K Monday night, police reported.

Injured and driver of one of the vehicles was Richard E. Kalkwarf, who was treated at a local hospital and released, they said.

Driver of the other car was S. T. Anderson, 73, of 1205 So. 20th, who was not injured.

Thailand Expels Russian Envoy

Bangkok (AP)—An attache of the Soviet Embassy in Bankok was expelled by Thailand for activities dangerous to this country's peace and security.

Acting Foreign Minister Visut Arthayuk told reporters the attache, Khairulla M. Shalkharov, had been given 7 days to leave Thailand.

Legality Of Tax Probe Questioned

Attorney Tells Terry Resolution Was Not Enacted Correctly

By Betty Person

The constitutionality of the operating authority of Sen. Terry Carpenter's Legislative Tax Investigation Committee was questioned Monday by Lincoln attorney John C. Mason in an appearance before the committee studying tax matters in Lancaster County.

In a prepared statement, Mason told the committee it has "just recently come to our attention that the Senator (Carpenter) is proceeding under Resolution 40 which we are informed was not enacted in accordance with the requirements of . . . Article 4, Section 15 of the State Constitution."

Mason said this section requires that all resolutions of the Legislature be submitted to the governor for approval, and added, "It is our understanding that this procedure was not followed in connection with this resolution."

The attorney said he was surprised at this discovery, and added, "but we do find it difficult to counsel our clients to appear until there has been some clarification of whether or not the hearings are being conducted under a resolution which complies with our State Constitution."

Seek Advice

He suggested that the senator "seek advice and clarification on this point" and assured the committee chairman that if a ruling is obtained indicating the requirements of Section 15 have been met, or do not need to be met, "we will respect that ruling."

Mason and his law firm have represented many of the business firms called before the committee to explain their tax procedures, and none of the firm's clients have declined to give the information requested by the committee.

Three Lincoln companies have declined to provide the committee with information it has sought on the grounds that disclosure of such information would be "detrimental" from a business standpoint and was confidential and should remain that way.

Carpenter had subponenas drawn Monday to be served against those 3 firms: Dobson Brothers Construction Co., D. B. Equipment Co.,

W. Lincoln Hall To Go On Ballot

The West Lincoln village board Monday night voted to place the $12,000 village hall bond issue on the November ballot.

Fred Way, village mayor, said such a building would be used for village activities, occasional church activities and for possible classroom space if present school facilities become crowded.

Pope Is Believed Rallying

Millions Praying After Pontiff's 2nd Illness

Castel Gandolfo, Italy (Tuesday) (AP)—Pope Pius XII reportedly passed a "peaceful night" and was believed to be rallying Tuesday from his second grave illness in 4 years.

Millions over the world prayed for the life of the pontiff.

The brief report of the Pope's condition Tuesday morning came at 6:30 a.m. from unofficial sources at the papal summer palace. No details were given.

The 82-year-old leader of the Roman Catholic Church suffered a stroke Sunday. He lapsed into a coma, then rallied and was "appreciably improved" by nightfall.

The pontiff's personal physician, Prof. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, told reporters at 10:25 p.m. Monday "The Pope is improving."

Shortly after midnight a papal attendant emerged from the pontiff's apartment and repeated the doctor's word that the Pope had shown some improvement. He said the Pope spoke a few words and then fell asleep.

Sources at the Vatican said the Pope was partly paralyzed by the stroke, but medical bulletins made no reference to paralysis.

Called In

One reliable source said a urinary block had aggravated the case and that a urologist, Dr. Ermanno Mingazzini, had been called in. One report said a syringe had been used to relieve this condition.

Members of the Pope's family were summoned to his bedside after he was stricken by the cerebral circulatory disturbances.

The Pontiff had been suffering several days from gastritis and hiccups but had been reported improved from those ailments.

The Weather

NEBRASKA: Rain southeast and south central Tuesday and extreme southeast Tuesday night. Cooler Tuesday east and south. Highs Tuesday 70 to 80.

Private Classes Pledged

Ban On Lease Of Schools Extended

By The Associated Press

A private school corporation in Little Rock, Ark., announced plans Monday to operate high schools for white children in private buildings. The schools would be financed by private donations.

The announcement came shortly after a federal court ban on operation of 4 Little Rock high schools as private, segregated institutions, was extended until a further hearing Oct. 15.

As the Little Rock school crisis ground to a new climax, federal and state authorities looked for clues to the identity of the dynamiters who wrecked the Clinton, Tenn., high school early Sunday.

The 850 white and 11 Negro pupils of Clinton High will go to classes in the undamaged gymnasium, National Guard Armory and a church school building until Thursday. After that the pupils will be sent in buses to a vacated school building in Oak Ridge, 6 miles from Clinton. The Atomic Energy Commission offered use of a 25-room elementary school at Oak Ridge while the Clinton school is rebuilt.

Quieted Down

The Clinton High School was desegregated by Federal Court order two years ago and several racial incidents occurred during the first year. The situation quieted down after race agitator John Kasper was given a federal sentence for stirring up violence.

Little Rock segregationists initially planned to lease the 4 Little Rock high school buildings for use as segregated private schools. Gov. Orval Faubus approved a substitute plan calling for private buildings and donations after the lease plan was temporarily enjoined by court of appeals justices in Omaha, Neb. The restraining order was extended for a 9-day period Monday by a 3-judge Federal Appeals Court in St. Louis.

The Little Rock Private School Corporation hopes to open classes this week or next. Dr. T. J. Raney, head of the group, said the privately supported institutions would open "as soon as we get things rolling."

Amis Guthridge, attorney for the Capital Citizens Council in Little Rock, a pro-segregation group, commented that "it is foolish for southern white people to await federal court decisions. The federal court position is clear. So is ours. We must get on with a private school system."

Thanksgiving

A New York educator voiced the opinion that Arkansas and Virginia schools closed by the integration dispute will open by Thanksgiving. Virgil M. Rogers, dean of the School of Education at Syracuse University, said he believed parents would demand reopening of schools whether integrated or not.

Justice Frankfurter of the U.S. Supreme Court released an 8-page opinion Monday concurring with the unanimous decision of the court last week in the Little Rock case. The court said then that states cannot use evasive schemes to halt integration.

Frankfurter's opinion said critics have a right to disagree with the court's integration rulings. But he added "active obstruction or defiance is barred."

Wheel Tax Is Placed On Ballot

By Virgil Falloon

The City Council directed the proposed Lincoln wheel tax for street improvements be put on the Nov. 4 ballot following a report Monday that the initiative petitions contained the required 2,580 qualified signatures.

Election Commissioner Anna Evans reported that 103 petitions with 3,175 names submitted to her office for checking contained 2,703 qualified voters.

She reported that 64 signatures were questioned, 401 were disqualified, and 7 were duplicates.

'More Than 2,580'

"We will continue to check," she said, "but it is now clear there are more than 2,580 signatures of qualified voters."

City Clerk Theo Berg said petitions containing 4,311 names have been filed and referred to the election office.

Under a resolution adopted, the proposed tax measure will appear on the Nov. 4 ballot under its short title.

$4 For Autos

The proposed ordinance, with rates similar to those of Omaha, provides for a $4 tax on passenger cars to a $20 maximum on trucks on a graduated scale.

A citizens committee organized the initiative drive for the proposed wheel tax ordinance after the old ordinance hit legal snags and was repealed by the Council.

Another citizens group, headed by Mrs. Breta P. Dow, first woman member of the Council, is to undertake an educational campaign to explain the wheel tax and street improvement program to the voters before the election.

Wheel Tax Drive Group Meets Today

An organizational meeting for a citizens group spearheading support for the city wheel tax on the Nov. 4 ballot has been scheduled for Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., at City Hall.

Mrs. Breta P. Dow, chairman of the citizens group, said anyone interested in helping on an educational campaign for the proposal is invited to attend.

Announcement of the meeting followed Council action directing the initiative-proposed wheel tax for street improvements be submitted to the voters at the Nov. 4 election.

Mrs. Dow said approximately 25 persons are expected to attend, but that the group wants to obtain ideas and suggestions from all interested persons.

The meeting will attempt to lay out a program to get the facts to the voters on the wheel tax and street improvement program, she added.

China Guns Quiet

U.S. Ships Escort Convoys Under Cease-Fire

Taipei (Tuesday) (AP) — The Nationalists poured a record quantity of supplies into Quemoy under Communist guns silenced on the first day of a Red cease-fire. But early Tuesday the Nationalists denounced the cease-fire as only a lull before a new storm.

As both sides held their fire, Sampson Chen, a Nationalist spokesman, called the weeklong truce proclaimed by the Communists early Monday a "diabolical peace offensive" and predicted the Reds would make more trouble soon.

He pledged again that the Nationalists would stand firm against the Communist call for direct negotiations of the Formosa Strait crisis.

But the Nationalists demonstrated they would accept a de-facto cease-fire even if opposed to talks with the Reds. Nationalist guns remained silent throughout Monday. Nationalist officials indicated they would not renew the firing unless fired upon.

A massive supply convoy escorted by U.S. ships landed supplies on Quemoy's battered beaches 6 hours after the shelling of the offshore islands stopped.

Proviso

One of the provisos of the Red cease-fire was that the United States stop escorting the Nationalist convoys to the offshore islands.

Peiping lashed out at the United States again Tuesday, charging that 8 American warships violated Communist territorial waters and that U.S. planes flew 13 sorties over the same areas Monday after the cease-fire. A Peiping broadcast said the Red Chinese government therefore issued its 23rd serious warning against such "naked military provocations."

A huge floating drydock manned by U.S. sailors a cargo ship and 4 to 6 large landing ships took part in Monday's supply operations. An additional 200 to 400 tons of supplies were airdropped. Nationalists said the volume of cargo — 2,000 tons — was more than 5 times that announced on any previous day. The floating drydock lay off shore and the Nationalists shuttled supplies in from it.

Two small supply steamers destined for Matsu Island, north of Quemoy, were reported being diverted to Quemoy to take advantage of the lull in the fighting.

Unanswered

The big unanswered question was whether the U.S. 7th Fleet would continue to escort Nationalist sea convoys to the 3-mile territorial limit off Quemoy. In announcing the cease-fire, the Reds said shooting would resume if the escorts continued.

Shen said his government would not ask the United States to halt the escort system A 90-minute meeting was held between U.S. Ambassador Everett F. Drumright and Foreign Minister Huang Shao-Ku, but no statement was issued afterward. However, signs pointed to U.S. willingness to halt escorts.

Vice Adm. Roland M. Smoot, the American commander on Formosa, said any change would have to be ordered from Washington, and he had received no new orders.

Nazi Victims

Prague (AP) — The Czechoslovak News Agency reports the ashes of more than 3,000 Nazi victims have been buried at the national cemetery of Terezin—the site of a former Nazi concentration camp. CTK said the ashes were discovered in northwest Czechoslovakia last spring. Victims included French, Soviet, Yugoslav and Polish prisoners slain at the Flossenbuerg camp, the agency said.

Dual-Use Slab OKd For Roberts Park

. . . Tennis, Ice Skating Planned

By Virgil Falloon

Plans for a combination tennis court-skating pond at Roberts Park and estimated to cost $8,900 were approved Monday by the Council.

The proposed 120 by 120-foot concrete slab is designed as tennis courts for summer use and for ice skating during the winter.

Its cost will come from the Rudge fund, $3,590.29; money donated by residents of the park area, $1,341.55, and $5,000 appropriated in the 1958-59 park department budget.

The Council has called for Oct. 22 bids on the proposed project to be completed by Dec. 1.

Other Action

In other action, the Council okayed a combination paving and storm sewer project, estimated to cost $54,000, for Paving District 1458 being Holdrege from 59th to 63rd and 60th from Holdrege to Aylesworth.

Public Works Director D. L. Erickson said the project includes necessary storm sewer work costing $12,000. Of this amount, $2,200 would be assessed against the district and $10,400 from the storm sewer bond issue would be used to reimburse the district. Bids were called for Oct. 22.

An agreement with the State Department of Roads for the removal of 3 traffic signals at 26th and D was okayed by the Council.

The signals will be installed on 10th at P and Q to replace overhead lights, officials said. It was agreed the signals are excessive to the 27th and D intersection with the new traffic arrangement for Capitol Parkway.

Council action on the following ordinances was:

Introduced. 1st Reading

—Paving district for 53rd from Normal to Myrtle.

—Sewer district on Benton from 11th to 12th.

—Water district for 70th from Vine to Y and for X and Y from 70th to 353 feet east. (Second reading also given).

Passed. 3rd Reading

—Paving District 1596 being 57th from Glade to Newton.

All Council members were present for the regular meeting and the morning session.

City Offers UAL Lease For 5 Years

The City Council has offered United Air Lines a lease renewal for 5 years at $6,300 per year on office space used by the air carrier at the Municipal Air Terminal.

United, whose present lease expires Nov. 30, will use 2,100 square feet, but is relinquishing 893 square feet now occupied.

City officials said that the relinquished space may be leased to Frontier Air Lines.

The new lease figure is $3 per square foot as compared with $2.67 now paid by United. The figure also includes janitorial services, air conditioning and the public address system.

United representatives have taken the new lease under consideration, city officials said. The firm had suggested a 5-year option in connection with the proposed lease.

Recommendation against the option was made by city officials because of changing conditions and the possibility of a new air field in the future.

With the relinquished space, city officials said sufficient space could be provided Frontier Air Lines without the necessity of adding to the Terminal building.

The Council was informed that Braniff Air Lines had been contacted concerning their interest in more space several years ago. No reply has yet been received, but it is believed that Braniff will answer negatively.

J. Cross, Union Boss, Indicted On Perjury Charge

Washington (AP) — Union boss James G. Cross was indicted on a perjury charge in connection with his denial before a congressional committee of any part in an alleged assault.

Cross, president of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union, said in a statement the indictment by a Federal Grand Jury was part of a politically inspired persecution.

The indictment dealt with a conflict of testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee in which Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) said someone was committing perjury.

Mrs. Nathan Ehrlich, a gray-haired Bronx housewife, testified here last July that Cross and several union adherents invaded her San Francisco hotel room just before a union convention in the fall of 1956 and beat up her husband and kicked her.

Cross testified he never was in the room. He said he was in his own hotel room taking a shower at the time.

Probe Legality Is Questioned

and Hovland Swanson Co. He said he expects to deliver the subpoenas to the Lancaster County Sheriff's office Tuesday to be served on the companies.

Ask Nov. 17 Reply

The committee chairman said he would ask that the firms reply to the subpoenas Nov. 17, and that if they do not comply at that time, he will ask the Lancaster District Court to cite them for contempt.

Mason's statement was seen by several observers as the preliminary step in a court test of the committee's authority.

Carpenter said he would welcome such a test "not only for the tax committee, but all legislative study committees."

The Scottsbluff senator said in his opinion it would be "completely irrelevant" to submit to the governor's office a resolution that has "nothing to do with his office."

Has Authority

Dr. Jack Rodgers, research director of the Legislative Council, said the Council's executive committee named the tax committee as authorized by the Legislature. He said the committee also has authority to name committees in addition to those authorized by the Legislature.

Legislative Clerk Hugo Srb said Article 4, Section 15, of the Constitution, provides that bills before they became law, or resolutions or orders to which both houses (under the old bicameral system) must concur, must go to the governor.

Srb said this refers to resolutions that become law and not to simple resolutions such as ones passed by the Legislature which never do become law.

Heard 11 Firms

The tax committee heard testimony from 11 firms Monday during the 6th day of the 10-day hearings scheduled in Lancaster County.

For the first time since the Lincoln hearings opened a week ago, Carpenter was joined by another committee member, Sen. David Tews of Norfolk.

Firms interviewed included Martin Investment Co.; Stuart Investment Co.; O'Shea-Rogers Motor Co.; Paramount Laundry and Cleaners; Pauley Lumber Co.; Schwartz Paper Co.; Sealrite Division; Hoppe Lumber Co. and Hoppe Manufacturing Co.; Steckley Hybrid Corn Co.; Nebraska Salesbook Co., and Short Manufacturing Co.

Press And Government Relationship Stressed

. . . Elks Honor Newspapermen

Editors and publishers of local newspapers Monday were honored at the 8th annual Lincoln Elks Lodge No. 80 newspaper night at Cotner Terrace.

Donald McGinley of Ogallala, Democratic candidate for Congress from the 4th District, was main speaker for the event.

McGinley stressed to the 60 newsmen and Elks the importance of good relations between government office holders and the press.

"The press," McGinley said, "can help to build respect for office holders rather than ridicule them. Competition has been called the life blood of the free enterprise system and likewise the job of getting government news to the people is arrived at through a competition of a sort between news reporters and the office holder with the best intentions."

McGinley

"Therefore," he added, "each should respect each other's job."

The congressional candidate also briefly touched on present farm problems.

William Quinn, exalted ruler of the lodge, welcomed the newsmen. Msgr. M. W. Helmann, editor of the Southern Nebraska Register, responded to the welcome on behalf of the press.

Tom Connelly of the Journal-Star Printing Co. served as master of ceremonies.

Russians Fire New A-Blast

Washington (AP) — The Russians fired another weapon in their current tests series—the 5th detected so far — the Atomic Energy Commission announced Monday.

A brief statement by AEC chairman John A. McCone said the detonation took place north of the Arctic Circle, the same area where the other 4 were set off.

"This one was of lesser yield than the others, he added.

The previous ones were described as of moderate yields.

The Russians began their nuclear weapons tests Sept. 20, with two shots. The other two were fired Oct. 2.

These were the first Russian tests reported by the AEC since Moscow announced last March that testing of nuclear weapons was being suspended.

Eastern, Gulf Coast Vessel Strike Ends

New York (AP) — A deck officers' strike that tied up 50 American-flag ships — including the big liners America and United States — and stranded thousands of passengers ended Monday night.

AFL-CIO President George Meany announced the end of the 6-day strike as he prepared to consider the issues. They were submitted to him by both sides for arbitration.

Meany said pickets posted by the International Organization of Masters, Mates and Pilots at Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports were being called off. He said the union's 1,200 striking members would return to work Tuesday.

The American Merchant Marine Institute, which has represented the 23 American-flag shipping companies in the dispute, had coupled its arbitration invitation last week to Meany with a request that he persuade the strikers to return to work. Meany met for the first time with the two sides Monday.

Institute Agrees

The institute agreed to allow Meany to decide whether the officers' union should get a contract similar to one signed by the union with West Coast shippers June 15 or similar to one signed in Mobile, Ala., Aug. 23. The institute also allowed Meany to pick portions of the two contracts for an acceptable agreement.

Ralph A. Casey, president of the institute, said he believed a few freighters would sail Tuesday. He said the strike had cost the shipping industry millions of dollars, but he was unable to give a more precise estimate.

THE "SUN" ALWAYS SHINES ON WASHDAY!

When an ELECTRIC automatic washer, and an ELECTRIC dryer move into your home, out go your washday weather worries.

For example, pop the dirty clothes into washer and set the dial — then spend your time as you wish, out of the laundry. Soon everything's clean . . . white's whiter, bright's brighter!

Then—let the ELECTRIC dryer go to work. The clothes will come out fluffier, softer and cleaner, because they're gently dried . . . tumbled in dust-free air that's warmed by ELECTRIC sunshine. Makes ironing so much easier, too . . . no ironing at all for many things such as contour sheets, towels, knitted garments.

ELECTRIC washing and drying is work-saving, time-saving, clothes-saving . . . it's living better, electrically!

The ELECTRIC washer and dryer you need is at your appliance dealer's now . . . why not see him right away!

McClellan Blames Law Officials For Union Abuses

Believes Labor Can't Toss Out President Hoffa

Washington (UPI) — Chairman John L. McClellan said that lack of diligence, indifference and in some cases "corruption" by state and local law officials were responsible for union abuses turned up by his Senate Rackets Committee.

The Arkansas Democrat also said he did not believe rank-and-file members of the big Teamster Union could "throw out" their president, James R. Hoffa, if they wanted to because Hoffa held such absolute power.

McClellan made the statements in a copyrighted interview with U.S. News & World Report, a weekly news magazine published here.

In discussing union misdeeds aired by his committee, McClellan said there would be much less need for federal legislation to curb labor corruption if state and local officials were more diligent.

Influence

He said some policemen and prosecutors did not crack down on illegal union activities because they were under the influence of the unions.

McClellan also said unions were unable to police themselves against certain types of corruption. In other cases, he added, the unions did not want to uncover corruption or apathy by rank-and-file members permitted abuses to go unchecked.

As a result, he said, the only recourse was for Congress to enact laws to cover situations disclosed by his racket investigators. He conceded, however, that "I don't think you'll ever entirely eliminate mischief from the labor movement or from business" regardless of what Congress does.

McClellan said he believed his group's investigations had "some deterring effects" on would-be labor racketeers and urged that the Senate vote to extend the inquiry for another year.

'No Control'

In discussing Hoffa, a prime target of the committee, the senator said ordinary members of the Teamsters Union "have no control" over its activities.

"In a union such as Hoffa runs, when you go to a (local union) meeting and try to make a protest, you are ruled out of order . . . or somebody is there to smash your head or threaten your family," he said.

McClellan said someday he might favor a federal right-to-work law "if it becomes necessary." Right now, he said, he did not favor such nationwide legislation, although he believed the states should have the right to pass these laws.

He said he supported the right-to-work in Arkansas.

L.A. Paper Says AF Lunar Probe Try Set Saturday

Los Angeles (AP)—The Air Force plans to make a 2nd attempt to launch a lunar probe rocket from Cape Canaveral, Fla., shortly after 3 a.m. (EST) Saturday, the Los Angeles Times said.

The story was attributed to missile industry sources here.

The initial moon shot failed after 77 seconds of flight Aug. 17.

The newspaper said the Los Angeles area again will be the hub of a world-wide tracking network but added:

"Except for periodic announcements every 6 months —if the rocket is successful— there will be no detailed information released except at Cape Canaveral and in Washington, D.C."

City Threatened With Suit Over Flow Of Water

The City of Lincoln has been threatened with a law suit if alleged flow of water across private land is not abated.

Atty. Dale Fahrnbruch, representing the J. F. Nelson Family Corp., claims the city has increased the quantity and speed of flow across his client's land near 48th and Pioneers Blvd. by the construction of a storm sewer.

Fahrnbruch's letter to the Council alleges that $16,000 damages have been caused.

No Council action was taken and the letter was placed on file.

N.Y. Teacher, 25, Is Arraigned In Prostitution Case

New York (UPI) — Substitute teacher Virginia McManus, 25, who could read the Bible at the age of 2½, was arraigned on a charge of prostitution.

The pretty, blonde English teacher, arrested with 4 other women last week in a raid on an East Side apartment, said she expected to be acquitted. She insisted that at the time of her arrest she was visiting a friend in the apartment.

Miss McManus, dressed in a smart black and white tweed suit and wearing spotless white gloves and dark glasses, told newsmen after the arraignment that she had not notified school authorities that she would be absent from the classroom.

A spokesman for the Board of Education said Miss McManus, a per diem employe, would not be permitted to teach while her case was pending.

"If she's adjudged guilty, then her teaching license will be canceled," the spokesman said. "She won't be teaching in the meantime."

Man Kills French Girlfriend, Self In SwankApartment

Washington (UPI) — A 33-year-old married businessman shot and killed his French-born divorcee girlfriend here as she lay sleeping in her apartment in a swank Georgetown neighborhood, police reported Monday.

The officers said that after shooting the pretty, 28-year-old woman, the man committed suicide with the same gun.

The victims of the shooting were Marvin C. Harrison, Washington representative of an Ohio manufacturing company, and Mrs. Monique Chesneau, a local employe of Belgium's Sabena Airlines.

Investigating officers said the shooting was believed to have occurred sometime Sunday. The bodies were discovered by another Sabena employe who called at the apartment to find out why the woman had not reported for work.

Chinese Puzzle

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The cease fire order issued by Chinese Communists to stop bombardment of the off-shore islands of Quemoy and Matsu has both U.S. and Nationalist China officials guessing. The step is a real Chinese puzzle, as the cease fire approach to a final settlement has been a Dulles-Eisenhower program.

But we should not be fooled by this action on the part of the Reds. As one U.S. military official put it, it is about time for the Reds to make a new move. Since the shelling of Quemoy and Matsu began, the Reds have gained nothing out of it, with the possible exception of some disagreements generated within the United States. "If the Communists don't try to shift things in their favor soon," said the U.S. military strategist, "it could mean they've had it."

Red Gains Still Small

Thus, rather than any encouragement, the cease fire order is a good sign that the Communists still aim to salvage something concrete out of the Formosa Straits conflict. This is not a move intended to end hostilities and return things to their previous standing. It is not a move intended to let the Nationalists hold on to Quemoy and Matsu after all.

The China mainland Communists did not get into the off-shore islands controversy just for the purposes of retreat at a later date. They had a definite goal in mind and have not given up on realization of that goal. It is likely that the Reds made the initial decision to stir things up and then to handle developments as they presented themselves.

★

The cease fire could end up with the U.S. in a very tough situation. Already, we must face one stipulation for the cease fire we want to become effective. The order from the China mainland calls for an end to U.S. escorts for supply ships landing at Quemoy and Matsu.

This is opposed by the Formosan Nationalist just on general principles. They simply do not trust the cease fire order. In years of dealing with the Communists, they have learned to believe nothing the Reds say. While there is every indication that they are right in this doubting approach, this hardly seems like the time for the U.S. to follow such a line.

America is almost forced to at least look at what the Reds are offering since the cease fire was urged by both Dulles and Eisenhower. It would also seem that we would be taking little chance in calling off our escorts so long as the Reds honor their cease fire order.

We, too, are now at the point where we just about are forced to take developments as they come along and deal with them one at a time. This, of course, calls for caution when dealing with the Communists or we could end up without our shirts before we knew what had even happened. The obvious pitfalls have changed little as a result of the cease fire.

The Reds, by the Quemoy and Matsu issue, hope to divide the free world. They hope for disagreement among the free nations over policy to follow in answer to the Red moves. They hope, also, that Nationalist China will eventually lose the support of the U.S., thus opening the way for Communist conquest of Formosa as well as Matsu and Quemoy. They, of course, have some realities to face which work in favor of an eventual peaceful solution. The greatest of these realities is the belief that the Reds do not want to fight an all-out war, at least at this time.

Major War Unwanted

This leaves us primarily in the dark as to what the final outcome in Formosa will be. The cease fire is more likely to turn out as a liability rather than an advantage. But it is the first break in the tense situation since the bombing of the islands started and thus must be carefully analyzed.

They're Not Going Through With It

Can't Write Off Dams

Any testimony in behalf of water management can be considered timely and constructive in Nebraska, and the statements of D. A. Williams, Washington chief of the U.S. Soil Conservation service, in general fell into that bracket.

Williams, speaking to Nebraska Future Farmers of America at Omaha, recommended equal interest and support for creating water banks as is going into the building of the soil bank program. He praised Nebraska for its achievements in soil conservation, but in general called for greater emphasis and greater efforts.

We can all buy that.

But it was perhaps in that spirit of overdedication, which characterizes the specialist, that Williams dismissed the logic of substantial dams. He advised the Nebraska youngsters that water belongs in the soil and not behind dams.

It would have been better said that water belongs in the soil to the maximum requirement of crop production but not more than that. And also that large reservoirs in Nebraska are, where indicated, as vital to a balanced water management program as are on-the-land developments.

Eastern Nebraska's rivers cannot be ignored in the forthcoming program to capture the wasted water, nor can their propensity to damage by flooding be nullified by hilltop installations. There is an incalculable amount of Nebraska water that does belong behind dams—just how much remains to be discovered through the maturing of on-the-land programs. Which is to say, that water belongs on the land up to a point. Beyond that it belongs behind dams.

Another Record

The United States' atomic power submarine fleet has established another world's record. This time, it was the Seawolf—remaining submerged for 60 days in the depths of the Atlantic Ocean. This wiped out previous underwater records which had been established by both the Seawolf and other U.S. subs.

The event has a great deal of significance and will add tremendously to this nation's storehouse of information on human behavior. One of the most important aspects of space exploration is the reaction of the human being to extended periods without contact with the world and the atmosphere to which he is accustomed.

Within the tiny confines of the Seawolf, 116 men lived for 60 days, never taking a breath of fresh air and experiencing the same things day after day. They faced boredom plus living under entirely artificial conditions. How they managed this and how well their equipment functioned will aid materially in efforts to move forward in exploration of outer space.

The event also has its military importance. Other submarine ventures have shown that there is water nowhere which is not navigable, that submarines can operate under the most difficult conditions and in the most remote places and that such craft are capable of carrying and launching long range ballistic missiles. The Seawolf has now proven that submarines are long on endurance and can operate as a comparatively independent fighting unit.

Certainly, the crew of the Seawolf has coming to it the welcome now planned. The Monday surfacing of the craft is a day on which all Americans can take pride in the capability of its military forces.

Knight In Rebellion

Elsewhere on this page Doris Fleeson passes along the word that Vice President Richard Nixon was unable to pass a miracle in California.

When he went out there to restore the Republican party and get Senator Knowland's campaign train back on the rails that lead to the governorship, he ran into four bad washouts. One was the California's party's depleted treasury. Another was the failure of Secretary Dulles to stay hitched on Matsu and Quemoy long enough to permit the vice president to quiet the issue in the presence of the Californians. A third was the right-to-work issue which Knowland will not relinquish and which the voters do not seem inclined to buy. The fourth was Governor Goodwin Knight, a foster child of California's GOP regulars.

This reluctant senatorial candidate refused to obey Nixon in throwing his weight alongside Knowland's on the side of the right-to-work amendment.

One can understand the disillusionment tinged with resentment held by Knight against the high-handedness of the Nixon-Knowland axis, for certainly it has run over the California governor without regard to his political welfare. Governor Knight did not wish to run for the U.S. Senate. He was content to continue as California's governor. But he had to get out of the way of Knowland and Nixon because they said so and they controlled the party purse strings.

After such an unrewarding experience there is no point now in Knight dispersing what is left of his support by dying a second and final time for such a pair of political associates. Knight would be more justified in trying to save what is left of his political life, letting Messrs. Nixon and Knowland face the consequences of their own bad planning.

Getting In Focus

Inflation is something Americans complain about but live with. That might be a different story if the average man could estimate the losses that have resulted from it.

Dr. George L. Bach, dean of the Graduate School of Industrial Administration at Carnegie Tech, has estimated the loss to creditors in 20 years of inflation at a half trillion in purchasing power.

The National Association of Savings Banks estimates the overall loss of inflation the past 12 years to be $147.5 billion dollars, sufficient to run the nation two years without levying a cent of taxes.

Byrd Machine May Be In Own Trap

Norfolk, Va. — J. Lindsay Almond, gnarled, shrewd, Bible-pounding governor of Virginia, is getting the heat from two sides. From one side, parents with children out of school are demanding that he reopen the schools, that he do something somehow to resume the education of their idle children.

From the other side, the most potent figure in the state, Sen. Harry Flood Byrd, apple-cheeked apple grower and head of the Byrd machine, is pressuring the governor to continue massive resistance. Byrd's pressure, while unpublicized, is more effective than that of a good many thousand parents. For it was Byrd who made J. Lindsay Almond governor of Virginia.

So the governor is between the man who made him and the parents who threaten to unmake him. This is why the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot describes the present school crisis as a test of the Byrd machine.

"The powerful Democratic organization must watch," writes George M. Kelley, the Virginian-Pilot's political observer at Richmond, "lest it get caught in a power-shattering trap."

Some observers believe the Byrd machine is already caught in that trap. Others disagree. Legislators who voted for massive resistance have been coming to Richmond and admitting to newspapermen confidentially that people in their area are disturbed. People never thought the schools would close. They thought Governor Almond and the Byrd organization would be equal to any emergency. Now they see that the organization had no aces up its sleeve. It was playing poker with no cards and with the children of the state as the chips.

☆ ☆ ☆

Admitted earnest Lt. Gov. E. A. Stephens to a newsman the other day: "People throughout the state are suddenly wondering what has hit them. They are wondering what all these bills they passed for massive resistance mean. It seems to mean that the schools are closed, and they never realized this would happen. So massive resistance is being quietly evaluated."

DORIS FLEESON

Knight Gives Dick The Cold Shoulder

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Republican Governor Goodwin J. Knight has sped the parting guest, Vice President Nixon, with an outright refusal to endorse Republican Senator William F. Knowland for the governorship.

Nixon had argued that what Knight needed to win the U.S. Senate seat vacated by Knowland was the Republicans Knight lost in the primary. The governor hardly paused to glance at those birds in the bush. They don't like him and it's mutual — in spades.

Instead Knight is toying with a brink of his own—the brink of outright repudiation of Knowland. Over the week end he edged close to it with a public hint that he might not vote for Knowland in November. Significantly, too, he broke his long silence on the big Trinity River water project here and endorsed federal construction of its power facilities. This again puts him with the Democrats and directly at odds with Knowland.

He has never really seen any reason to associate himself with Knowland whom he thinks was doomed from the start by his zealous commitment to the right-to-work initiative. It was not lost on Knight that Nixon himself ducked that issue while here, though as a Californian, Nixon will find it on the ballot he casts in November.

The governor has noted also the continuing and ever larger Democratic totals in the registrations just concluded. Unofficial reports say that the new Democratic recruits out-number Republicans 3 to 1 and that this obtains in the state's four most populous counties. Democrats already had a 3-2 edge in registrations.

This "speaks for itself," according to Knight. It also speaks for his determination to hang on to his friends in the opposition party on whom his whole hope of defeating Rep. Clair Engle rests.

The vice president also found the state party's treasury in sad state, one report having it that contributions were running only a fifth of the campaign's estimated cost. Nixon worked over the GOP fat cats in a series of private meetings, holding out to them the spectre of disaster at the polls by which they would lose all their long hold on state government.

☆ ☆ ☆

In between these cold turkey talks he publicly rallied the GOP troops in his old vein. They still like it and he showed clearly that the old Nixon can be turned on and off like a faucet as circumstances dictate.

It did not leave him much time to be the new 1960 Nixon, a role in which he was further and fatally handicapped by the Eisenhower-Dulles revolving door diplomacy in the Quemoy-Matsu area.

On his arrival here, Nixon went on television with a pointer and a map defending the hard line. But by then the secretary of state had softened it. After a telephone call to Dulles and the Eisenhower press conference, Nixon caught up in rather vaguely worded comments to the Washington reporters accompanying him. But then Chiang complained vociferously and was soothingly eased by Dulles. In still another huddle with his press party, the vice president wiped his brow and made a gallant effort to explain everything. It was purely a rhetorical exercise and he knew it.

LA VERNA HASSLER

Patchwork Prairie Country

The frost has not broken through the curtains of corn as yet, but any night now the great drama of summer will come to an end. I for one will cheer with a loud bravo for it has been a good year.

We gathered the acorn squash tonight while the chill wind prodded us to hasten our work. The pumpkin vines are still green and lush with no hint of a changing season. We left the big golden nuggets in the field to be gathered later, perhaps on one of October's bright blue days. October often has such perfect days — calm and lazy with cobwebs floating high against the azure sky . . .

It is on such days that walking seems such a pleasant pastime. There's the trip to the big pond to gather cattails for winter bouquets or watch the teal glide silently past. There are always noisy blackbirds in the reeds to hear or blue herons to watch as they jab into the water for tasty tidbits. Sunsets to defy all description are mine just for the walking . . . sunsets that gild the distant rim where the lake and western ridge meet . . .

I read that England has many footpaths through the countryside reserved for those who enjoy walking. It seems a large number do walk for they love the solitude and beauty of their countryside and believe a good walk is necessary to a good life.

☆ ☆ ☆

Some days of the week are especially good days. Last Saturday was a day filled with much pleasure for us, perhaps more so for The Farmer. A car drove into the yard. The driver, tall and sun-tanned, alighted, called me by name, and asked for The Farmer.

The gentleman had been a recruit when The Farmer instructed trainees in Texas fourteen years ago, and passing through this area on his way to Kansas City had stopped to see his old "First Sergeant."

Conversation was filled with "Remember this and remember that" and "I wonder what happened to him." Although they correspond via Christmas cards every year, one long verbal conversation is worth any number of cards.

He had dinner with us and promised to show us good trout streams in Wyoming or choice elk hunting grounds should we journey to his state. I believe his advice would be reliable as he works in the conservation department, planting fish, feeding elk through the winter, and banding wild fowl. I have known of secret fishing spots guaranteed to produce a catch every time the line was thrown into the water that produced nothing but the sucker at the other end of the pole. But this lad I would believe. However, The Farmer being neither a hunter of a fisherman must let such choice information go unheeded.

He did exact a promise from The Farmer to visit his area and take in Yellowstone National Park in the near future. But knowing how difficult it is to get away from the farm, Old Faithful will have given up by the time we get there. At best, it may not be able to produce more than a fizz followed by a burp or two.

All of the park bears will have grown so tired of people and peanuts that they will have headed for the hills. All of the springs will have sprung, leaving us very little to see, so we might as well stay home in the first place.

BOB CONSIDINE

Man Is Outflying His Mind

NEW YORK — The preposterous grumpiness of the New York Port Authority, in trying to put a crimp in the inevitability of the Jet Age, may have some overtones not generally known. Perhaps the gaffers who would make the big BOAC and Pan-Am jets take off for Europe with less noise than is permitted at DCA or Connie or not take off at all, are simply trying to stay that hapless day when the air traveler, upon awakening after a dozing flight, loses all reason.

Have you ever been aroused in the morning, after traveling through the night, and wonder where you are? Sure, it's happened to you. As you break free of the cloying embrace of what the poet called "sleep . . . sister of death," you fear when you dully recognize a strange ceiling or grope at a hostile bed that you are being strangled or smothered in some alien cornfield. Reason totters, and that helps bring back what we will generously call the sanity of our wakeful hours. As consciousness dawns, you remember that last night you checked into the Bide-A-Wee motel, or went home to mother, or were sent to Bellevue for examination. Anyway, you vaguely wonder who has the concession to supply the pillows with gravel.

Abrupt changes of scene, climate, tongues, accents and customs have long been recognized as items to avoid. We once elected presidents in November and gave them until the following March 4 to gird themselves for the shock of waking up some morning the White House. Even now we give them two months and more to adjust their reflexes. In that respect, we still pay reverence to the horse and buggy gait, the sauntering stride, though we have left both far behind in the vapor trails.

Consider the air age —the conventional reciprocating engine air age — and what it has done in this matter. It has permitted people to travel phenomenally faster than ever before. Their subconsciousnesses often follow minutes or hours later. For example: a man gets on a plane at Idlewild, has a brace of martinis, then a champagne dinner, an after dinner brandy and smoke and talk, then goes to bed.

The next thing he knows his lapel is being grabbed by a customs man who speaks only 1) French, 2) Italian, 3) Spanish, or the indescribably lovely English which the Irish are preserving until such time as Britain's socialized medicine accomplishes the feat of removing every British adenoid. It is difficult to adjust, which has caused customs men in general to believe in recent years that people arriving by air are not very bright.

Separate Equality

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: In 1896 the Supreme Court handed down the "separate-but-equal" doctrine as applied to racial transportation and education, which the people in general accepted as the law of the land. While the southern states did not actively resist it, they gave negative resistance by their non-compliance, which continued for about 50 years. This brought on the conditions leading up to today's integration struggle, conditions for which those southern states must accept full blame.

Ten or 12 years ago, faced with increasing demands for integrated schools, many of these states inaugurated programs of compliance with the 1896 doctrine. By 1954 the educational leaders of both races, working in conjunction with business and governmental leaders, had become convinced that complete compliance would be reached by 1961 or 1962. As a result of their efforts some of the southern states today have Negro schools more modern than are the white schools.

Then came 1954. The 1896 opinion was still the "law-of-the-land" and the Supreme Court had the power to enforce it. The Negro's civil rights were being abridged in violation of the 14th amendment. No constitutional questions were involved; no massive resistance would have been organized to thwart enforcement. Had the court ordered such enforcement, all states would have complied in full as they were already complying in part.

The integration order reversed the "separate-but-equal" doctrine by annulling the "separate" provision. It has aroused the almost unanimous anger of the southern whites, whose century-old way of life it threatens. It has brought about their massive resistance. It has brought paratroopers to Little Rock. Elven states have enacted laws designed to obstruct its enforcement. Its complete enforcement will take more time, and will leave hatreds that will endure for generations.

The solution:

Let the Supreme Court again reverse itself by revoking the integration order and then ordering enforcement of the 1896 "law-of-the land." The southern states would now waste no time in making full compliance with such an order. This would give the Negro his civil rights return to the south its states rights and vest in the individual his personal and social rights; whereupon we will again have peace in the land.

No Support

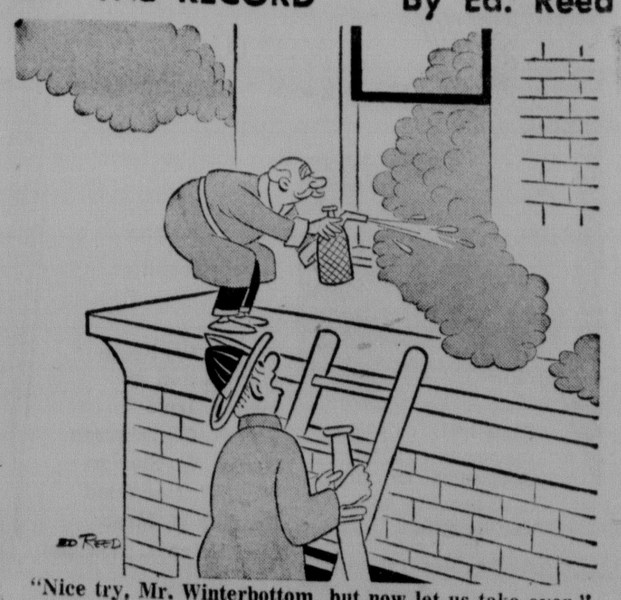

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Busy Beaver Dulles is now hard at work, trying to back pedal from the brink. The NATO nations have made it known, if not officially, that they care not nor will they follow Dulles over the brink in a shooting war over China's off-shore islands.

Russia has officially stated she will not stand idly by if China is attacked. These undisputable facts are staring Dulles in the face. If we get into a scrap over the islands, we will have neither military nor moral outside support.

A READER

OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed

"Nice try, Mr. Winterbottom, but now let us take over."

Stanton Delaplane's POSTCARD

At times I am seized with a fury of literary ambition. And last week I was auditioning the beef stew at Moriarty's in New York and cutting up touches with the literati.

It is my ambition to whack out some prose for Reader's Digest about "The Most Unforgettable Character I Ever Met." The Digest pays you 2500 clams for this character study.

The only problem is I seem to have forgotten all the most unforgettable characters. And the ones I cannot forget, I wish I could.

☆ ☆ ☆

The most unforgettable character I remember, was an uncle who could pop his fingers and his toes.

He popped his finger knuckles by bending them with the other hand. But he could pop his toes simply by wiggling them. Inside his shoes! As a small child this seemed to me the height of accomplishment. But I couldn't even produce a small snap.

This brittle, unforgettable character, however, could wiggle his foot and — pop! pop! pop! It sounded like a string of firecrackers going off.

☆ ☆ ☆

This does not seem to be the idea of Reader's Digest. The idea seems to be a kindly and elderly person who gives you a homely piece of advice. Like: "Strawberries with sugar are better than rhubarb pie in the sky."

A little vague. But full of wisdom. This piece of advice then, (a) colors the rest of your life; or (b) comes back to you in a moment of stress. And gets you the Congressional Medal of Honor.

All I can remember of my uncle's advice is: "Curl your toes tight. And then unwind them FAST!"

It has remained with all my life and even recalled itself in moments of stress. However, all I have ever accomplished is my knees pop when I try to do deep bends.

☆ ☆ ☆

I was having lunch with Gordon Manning, the News-week editor. Mr. Manning has a curious ambition.

"My ambition is to create one of those do-it-at-home kits for kids. It would make a fortune."

Manning would like to create a Be-A-Gentlemen's-Lounge-Attendant-in-Your-Own-Home kit.

He has five boys and is trying to get them started in a paying business.

The kit would contain one comb and one towel. One bottle of Murine, one bottle of Vaseline Hair Tonic, two carnations, one whisk broom and one white coat.

"It would be a paying business," he said. Because all your party guests would have to tip the boy. Just like in "21" where they put a carnation in your buttonhole and whisk you around a little and you leave a quarter."

Manning would staff the upstairs bathroom and the downstairs powderroom. Having plenty of boys to spare.

He is toying with the idea of adding a tip plate with two quarters glued to it. Just like in the most exclusive saloons in New York.

I am also thinking of doing a piece for the women's magazines. The title: "Housework Is Easy If You Use Your Head."

I sent a synopsis of this idea to a women's magazine while I was in New York. Funny thing, they didn't seem to want this kind of story. Didn't even send it back with a rejection slip.

They sent it back with a special messenger. He carried it at arm's length in a pair of fire tongs.

Ike Rallies GOP Campaigners For An Intensive Effort To Win Congress

By Jack Bell

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower, reported in a real fighting mood, rallied Republican campaigners for an intensive effort to wrest control of Congress from the Democrats.

Taking personal command at a 2½-hour White House conference, Eisenhower dispatched Republican legislative leaders to preach the doctrine that the GOP stands for peace and economic progress while the Democrats offer only socialism.

Vice President Richard Nixon, congressional chieftains and members of the White House staff joined after the meeting in a statement—revised to meet Eisenhower's suggestions—contending that continued Democratic control of the legislative branch would take the nation down the left lane which leads inescapably to socialism."

Eisenhower was described by GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn as "in a real fighting mood" about the apathy with which the President has said Republican voters have responded to a campaign in which he believes "moderate government" is at stake.

'Unsound, Unwise'

In this vein, the joint statement said that "the responsible citizen who fails to direct his full effort toward a Republican victory in 1958 is, in effect, inviting the adoption of unsound, unwise, and unpalatable legislation during the next two years."

The statement continued:

"Either we Americans dedicate ourselves to strengthening and preserving private enterprise, using the only dependable political instrument available—the Republican party—or we are certain to go down the left lane which leads inescapably to socialism."

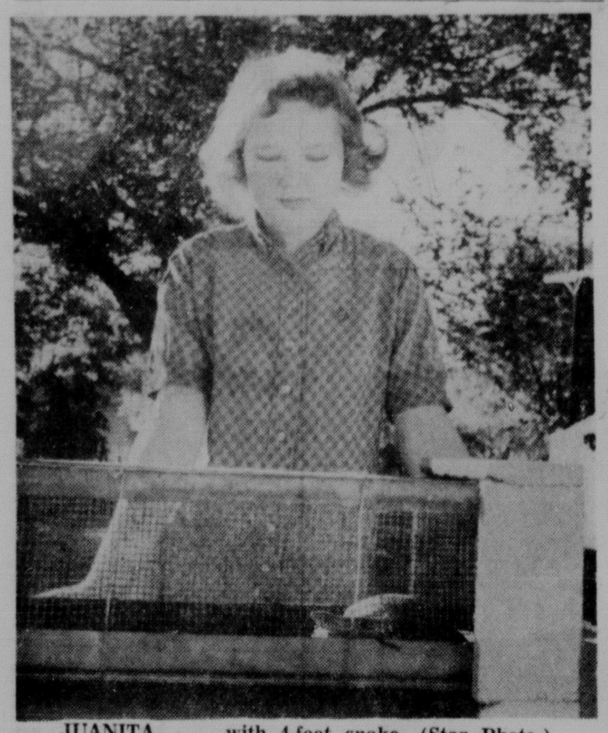

Alcorn made it clear, however, that Republicans are ready to debate foreign as well as domestic issues with the Democrats. The GOP chairman said the opposition had injected the issue of the defense of Quemoy and Matsu into the campaign "and it's there now."

He said Eisenhower "pointed out very vigorously" at the meeting that the principle of standing against possible Communist aggression is involved in the Far East. Leading Democrats have said the islands themselves are not worth fighting for.

"He said that the Democratic reference to these islands as mere piles of rock completely misses the principle involved," Alcorn said. "Anyone who tries to divert the issue by calling these mere piles of rock isn't serving the best interests of his country."

Young 'Frank Buck' Duo Captures 4-Foot Snake

Shades of Frank Buck!

Juanita Whiting and her boy friend Kenny Witham, both 14, set out for a walk Saturday afternoon, but the trip was cut short by the discovery of a 4-foot snake lying on a nearby driveway belonging to Don Bickford, owner of a Lincoln pet shop.

At first the snake looked dead, Juanita said. But when Kenny kicked at it the angry reptile became very much alive. It uncoiled, hissed and struck at young Witham.

Juanita decided she wanted to take the snake to school, so while Kenny kept the snake corraled she searched the neighborhood for a forked stick. They held their prey with the stick and forced him into a tin can with holes punched in one end.

The pair took their victim to Juanita's house, where it met with unfavorable reaction from Mrs. George Whiting.

"Mother was scared," Juanita said, "and she wanted us to kill it." However, Mrs. Whiting consented to allow her husband to construct a cage for the snake, providing it was strong enough to hold it overnight.

Monday morning the caged snake went to Culler Jr. High School, where it became the object of examination by Juanita's 9th grade science class.

The snake didn't cause a great deal of excitement at the Whiting household, since last year Juanita and a group of friends found a bull snake in another neighbor's yard.

She says the snakes probably came out of the ground in a nearby area where several foundations have been dug for houses.

"I'm not afraid to hold them if I know they're harmless," Juanita explained.

She also had a white mouse she took to school last year. Her brother has a fish, and the family has a water spaniel that recently had two puppies.

Although Juanita and Kenny couldn't definitely identify the snake, they thought it was a type of bull snake.

"It was wilder than any bull snake I've ever seen," Kenny said.

Way Is Cleared To Arraign Caril Fugate On Wednesday

By Del Harding

Fifteen-year-old Caril Fugate's next court appearance is expected to be Wednesday when she will be brought before Lancaster District Judge Harry A. Spencer for arraignment on two murder charges.

The way was cleared Monday for the arraignment when the last two necessary legal formalities were carried out. County Atty. Elmer Scheele filed an information in District Court charging her with first degree murder and murder while in the perpetration of a robbery.

Sheriff Merle Karnopp then drove to the Lincoln State Hospital and as required personally served Caril with a copy of the information.

Time Not Waived

Caril's court-appointed attorney, John McArthur, said he did not want to waive the optional 24-hour waiting period after the information is served before the District Court arraignment. So the earliest Caril can be arraigned is Wednesday morning, and it is believed she will be brought before Judge Spencer sometime during the day.

After Caril is arraigned and again enters the innocent pleas she entered to the murder charges in County Court Judge Spencer will set a date for the start of her trial. It is believed the trial will start Oct. 27, with Nov. 3 the next-most-likely date.

Caril is charged in the death of 17-year-old Robert Jensen of Bennet last Jan. 27 her boy friend, 19-year-old Charles Starkweather, was convicted of the actual shooting of Jensen but she is charged as his accomplice

Under Nebraska law a person found guilty of participating in a murder is as guilty as the person who actually does the killing.

Witnesses Listed

With the filing of the information in District Court Scheele also listed all the persons whom he may desire to call as prosecution witnesses at the trial.

The list of witnesses who may, and Scheele emphasized the word "may," be called totalled 79 persons. The county attorney said he is required by law to list any person he might wish to call, no matter how unlikely it is the person will be called.

Scheele said he doubts that even half of the 79 persons will actually be called to the stand to testify.

In the Starkweather case, Scheele listed 64 prospective witnesses but used only 30.

May Call Charles

The list for the Fugate trial contained the name of Starkweather, but Scheele said he has not decided whether or not to call him. Starkweather could not be forced to take the stand if he declined, but at times he has indicated he wished to testify against his companion in the winter murder spree which claimed 10 lives.

The prospective witness list as filed by Scheele:

Rucker, 48, suffered possible broken ribs, a lip cut and a broken wrist when the car he was driving was in collision with one driven by Francis Kraus, 20, of Beaver Crossing. After the collision the Kraus car was in collision with a car driven by Dwight Fritts Jr., 26, of 2945 So. 42nd, the Safety Patrol reported.

All 3 cars were westbound, the Safety Patrol said, and the mishap apparently occurred when the Rucker car slowed down and was hit from the rear by the Kraus car. The Rucker vehicle was driven into a concrete overpass abutment by the impact.

Neither Kraus nor Fritts suffered any apparent injury, the Safety Patrol said. Heavy damage resulted to the Rucker and Kraus cars.

U.S. Welcomes Reds' New Cease-Fire Offer

See Diplomatic 'Fish Hooks'

By The Associated Press

Washington—The United States welcomed Red China's cease-fire offer Monday in hope that it opens the way for peaceful settlement of the Formosa Strait dispute.

But the full implication of Peiping's move—rigged with Potential diplomatic fish hooks—was not lost on Washington. That is why the U.S. reaction was so cautious.

Red China offered a one-week cease-fire provided the United States quit convoying Nationalist supply ships to the artillery-blockaded coastal islands.

An official U.S. statement said the offer was welcome and would be carefully studied by the United States and Nationalist China.

What the statement did not say was that this consultation would be even broader. British Ambassador Sir Harold Caccia was called to the State Department quietly for a talk with Acting Secretary Christian A. Herter. Other Atlantic Pact allies also were invited to give their views.

'Propaganda Distortions'

The official U.S. reaction in a statement by Herter questioned Red China's motivation and attacked "propaganda distortions" in Peiping's offer. As to the U.S. convoy operation, Herter's statement said two things:

1. If the shooting stops, the convoy will stop.

2. The convoy is limited strictly to international waters.

These comprised a key point.

Officials said this was America's way of emphasizing beforehand that, if the convoy stops, it will be in reaction to the suspension of firing—not in an effort to comply with conditions laid down by Peiping for a cease-fire. Also, the stress on international waters was a way of telling Peiping politely that what the United States did on the high seas was nobody else's business.

The Red Chinese offer went into great length on Peiping's new line that the United States must clear out of the Formosa area. President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles lately have pictured Peiping's goal as not only conquest of Quemoy and Matsu islands and Formosa but complete erasure of U.S. power and presence in the area.

'All Chinese'

The Peiping statement declared "we are all Chinese" and described the United States as "the common enemy."

Behind this tactic, officials said, was Red China's hope of enticing would-be defectors among Quemoy's Nationalist defenders. Previous Red propaganda has called on these people to murder their U.S. advisers and bolt for the mainland.

6 Die As Mobs Block Highways

Beirut, Lebanon (UPI) —A mob chanting anti-government slogans blocked the main road to Damascus, Syria, for 8 hours Monday until reinforced Army units spearheaded by tanks and armored cars pierced the flaming barricades.

At last 6 persons were reported killed and about 20 injured in a series of demonstrations to and from Beirut by Christian Phalangists, who are supporters of former pro-Western President Camille Chamoun.

Columns of thick black smoke from burning tires and oilsoaked crates rose from the barricade on the Damascus road near the Defense Ministry.

Lebanese infantrymen pleaded with the mob to end the demonstration and used water, tear gas, sticks and warning shots in an effort to dislodge the Phalangists. But the streets remained blocked until senior officers issued an ultimatum ordering the mob to abandon the barricades.

Moved Off Streets

The demonstrators finally moved off the streets before the advancing lines of tanks and infantrymen.

North of the city the Army also cracked down on a mob blocking the main road. Soldiers firing a heavy machine-gun from an armored car dispersed some of the demonstrators but officers said the road still remained cut.

On the outskirts of Beirut a mob of more than 1,000 Phalangists led by flag-waving women and girls set up at least a score of barricades in the space of 4 blocks. The barricades were made of rubble and steel girders topped with smouldering tires and wood.

As quickly as soldiers tore down one barricade, another would mushroom behind their backs.

In Tripoli, other anti-government mobs led by women and girls held up traffic in support of the two-week-old general strike against the new government by Chamoun supporters.

In the port area of Beirut, the Army and Christian Phalangists exchanged fire across rooftops, killing at least one man.

Yet Another Lienemann List Released

Retail jewelry stores are the subject of the latest comparative tax report released by County Commissioner Del Lienemann.

Lienemann said the report "illustrates the minority again has the majority and their competitor paying some of their taxes." The "business firm who (sic) makes an honest attempt to file the (county personal property) return properly is penalized because his competitor has been successful by some unknown means to escape the penalties for failure to file a proper return, for undervaluation and for deliberate dishonesty," he declared.

This is the 14th in a series of tax reports by Lienemann. The latest report:

Burke Backs U.S. Support For Chiang

Annapolis, Md. (AP) — Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, called Monday night for continued support of the Nationalist Chinese in the Formosa crisis.

Burke told mishipmen of the first class at the Naval Academy that to be respected as a leader a nation or an individual must be willing to act in accordance with his belief.

He said this principle underlies U.S. action in Lebanon, where the Chamoun government appealed for help, and underlies U.S. support of Nationalist China in the Formosa Strait

"There are people today at home and abroad who advise us to abandon our Chinese Nationalist friends and leave them to stand alone against the overwhelming force of the Communists," Burke said.

'Submission'

"But for us to do so would be to bow in abject submission to the Communist use of force."

Burke said it would then be only a matter of time before the Communists would again test U.S. will and determination on issues in different places and from a position of increasing Communist strength.

"To appease their desire for the offshore islands now would only whet their appetite for a bigger bite of real estate later, for the Communist objective of eventual world domination is well known," Burke said.

"Unquestionably there are risks in the Taiwan Straits right now. But it has not been in the character of our nation to retreat in the face of force."

Democratic Landslide Predicted

. . . By Sen. Humphrey

Washington (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) Monday forecast a coast-to-coast Democratic landslide in November. He said he did not believe President Eisenhower "will change a vote" with his all-out campaign for GOP candidates.

Humphrey, vice-chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, told a news conference the outlook was "very good" for Democratic candidates in all the 11 states he visited on a recent campaign tour.

Besides his home state of Minnesota, Humphrey campaigned in California, Missouri, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, South Dakota, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, New Jersey and New York.

Humphrey saw California as the "Banner State" for the Democrats. He predicted Democrat Edmund G. Brown would deefat GOP Sen. William S. Knowland for governor and Democratic Rep. Clair Engle would beat Gov. Goodwin J. Knight for the Senate.

Farm Land Values Soar To New High

Washington (UPI) — The value of U.S. farm real estate rose to a record high of $118,700,000,000 (B) in the 4 months ending last July 1, the Agriculture Department reported Monday.

The figure represented a 5% rise over a year earlier. The Department said land prices were being pushed up by improved crop and income propects, inflationary pressures, government farm programs, and a steady demand for land from both urban and farm buyers.

The department said farm land and building values were unchanged during the March-June period in Minnesota, Iowa and Pennsylvania. But they rose 2% or more in the remaining 45 states with an average national increase of 2%.

It was the 13th straight 4-month period in which land values had risen.

Russ Protest U.S. TV Show On Joseph Stalin's Death

Washington (AP)—Russia's ordinarily cheerful Ambassador, Mikhail Menshikov, protested bitterly Monday against an American television show entitled "The Plot to Kill Stalin."

This show, carried by Columbia Broadcasting System Sept. 25, depicted Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev as preventing an aide from giving medicine to Joseph Stalin as the Soviet dictator lay dying.

Menshikov went to the State Department with his complaint. He told reporters:

"I voiced a resolute protest against this provocative action. That was a filthy slander against the Soviet Union and the Soviet government

"This kind of slanderous attack is incompatible with international standards and inadvisable in normal diplomatic relations."

What does he expect the U. S. government to do? Reporters asked.

Menshikov replied that it was to be expected that the U. S. government would take steps "to prevent such anti-Soviet acts which can only be detrimental to relations."

Reporters then pointed out that CBS is a private firm, not subject to censorship or other government action.

Menshikov insisted: "Since this took place on the territory of the United States, naturally the U. S. government bears responsibility."

It was the CBS network which in June 1957 televised an interview with Khrushchev in which the Soviet leader was allowed to present his views at length to American viewers.

At the time, President Eisenhower seemed a little irritated over the presentation, telling his news conference that a commercial firm had gone to unusual lengths to get Khrushchev before the American people for a performance.

The State Department took Menshikov's protest under advisement.

Rape Claim Being Investigated Here

Dep. Co Atty. Paul Douglas said Monday he will question a 26-year-old man Tuesday in connection with the alleged rape of a 17-year-old Lincoln girl Sunday night.

The girl reported to police she had been raped by the man near 15th and Superior after she had accepted a ride with him from her hometown, which is located about 125 miles from Lincoln.

Negro Policemen

London (UPI) — The Daily Mail predicted that London might have Negro policemen soon. It said Negro immigrants could join the special constabulary which is a part-time police agency, if they met the physical requirements. The special force was reorganized last June and now is under the control of Scotland Yard. At present, there are no Negro policemen on the London metropolitan force.

Sub Men Had Pretty Good Time Under Ocean For 60 Days

New London, Conn. (AP) — A man can have a pretty fine time for himself even when he's in the ocean deapths in a submarine for 60 days.

At least that's the picture that emerged from a news conference with a remarkably modest group of officers on the submarine Seawolf.

This is the way they pictured their life in the deep:

They ate well, they had plenty of recreation. They all got along together fine and they ran into no problems.

Oxygen flowed continually into the quarters and it was so effective that the men couldn't tell any difference in the atmosphere from that outside.

Taped Music

The men could smoke as often as they wished. For recreation they had taped music, movies, books and various games.

The old Navy might not have been like this but some of the crew even took up painting and making leather goods. And what was the favorite game? Monopoly, a game of pseudo-finance.

You would think food would be a problem, but for their noon meal before they landed the men had broiled steak, mushrooms, french fries and all the trimmings.

Did they take on weight? No, they had a special menu that helped prevent it.

Exercise was a problem, but for the sun-and-beach boys a man could bring his own sunlamp aboard.

For the man concerned about his muscles and pep, there were vitamin pills. Nobody was seriously ill during the full endurance record.

Surprised

In fact, things went so smoothly that the crew of the Seawolf was a little surprised when they found a piece of superstructure missing as their vessel surfaced.

At one point during the trip, said Capt. Richard B. Laning, the skipper, "we heard something banging around up there but we didn't know what it was."

The missing piece had nothing to do with the ship's watertight hull.

There was even education aboard. Some of the newer crewmen went through study courses and heard many lectures.

It would seem that human relations would pose a problem over such an extended period, but the officers said everybody got along well and no feelings arose.

Breeze

Laning and his colleagues made the whole voyage sound like a breeze, but Laning made a point of saying:

"We're all happy to get back."

He said he wanted to stress one point about the whole affair:

"There was nothing exciting about this, nothing dramatic. It was just routine duty."

40-Cent Payment

Olney, Ill. (UPI) — A new Abraham Lincoln document showed the Great Emancipator liked to get every penny that was coming to him.

Records in the Richland County Clerk's Office reported payment of 40 cents in interest on a $4.10 loan to Lincoln on March 10, 1845. The money came from the estate of Seeley Bunn, who died Sept. 5, 1843.

NWU EYEING STRICTER ACADEMIC ATTITUDE

The possibility of an even stricter attitude toward academic problems at Nebraska Wesleyan University was outlined by Dr Sam Dahl, Dean of the College in a report to the Board of Trustees fall business meeting Monday.

Commenting on the admissions policy at Wesleyan, he noted that "Nebraska Wesleyan could have enrolled many more than the 997 students who are in classes this fall, had students who were in scholastic difficulties in other schools been accepted."

He went on to say that "American education has been geared to meet the needs of the average and below average student. Now we must begin to pay greater attention to the gifted student and be certain the educational opportunity afforded him is equal to that of his average or less-fortunate brother."

Dr. Dahl said it is "irrational and illogical" for college people to join in attacks of the elementary and secondary schools, and then be unwilling to exercise leadership in helping to solve the problems.

"I submit," he said, "that the liberal arts college is uniquely well fitted to spearhead the whole nation's return to sanity and common good sense in facing up to the problems of American education realistically."

ActionAgainst Neylon Bros. Dismissed

The U.S. Department of Labor has dismissed its civil complaint against John E. Neylon, doing business as Neylon Bros. Freight at Lincoln, in Federal District Court.

The complaint filed last May sought to enjoin Neylon in connection with alleged violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The joint stipulation between the parties agreed that the necessary corrective action would be taken.

It was stipulated that the defendant's agent without the defendant's knowledge had employed persons without compensation for a day or two while they were supposed to be learning their routes.

It was also stipulated that trucking firm would keep proper records and make them available to federal inspection and that an attempt to establish a guaranteed wage agreement with one employe did not meet federal requirements.

Town Talk

—this is the morning we catch up on some of the news we have wanted to tell you during the past few days—First there are homecomers—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, who have just returned from Houma, La., where they spent 10 days as the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Yetter and their family.

In case you had the idea that the Yetters resided in New Orleans (which they did) we hasten to tell you that their home in Houma is strictly temporary. But during their stay in Houma Mr. and Mrs. Yetter and their children, Vicki Jo and Scotty, are residing at 400 Crescent Blvd.

* * *

—thought perhaps by this time Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fraizer might have a name for their new son who arrived on Friday, Oct. 3, at St. Elizabeth Hospital. It seems that they haven't—and all we know for sure about the name is that it won't be Tad (T. Duncan Fraizer or Will (William Kevin Fraizer) because those names belong to the baby's older brothers. The grandparents, as you probably have guessed, are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Desmond and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fraizer.

* * *

—the Revelers are going Hollywood on us—At least the committee in charge of the Revelers Club dinner dance next Friday evening at Hotel Cornhusker, has chosen a Hollywood theme—"A Star is Born" for the party.

The committee, by the way, includes Mr. and Mrs. William Gold, II, chairmen; Dr. and Mrs. Louis Gogela, Mr. and Mrs. George Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Forke, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Andros.

New member couples this year are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Druliner, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Packett and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krejci.

* * *

—greetings to very young David Webster Liggett are in order this morning. The young man, who will be one month old on Thursday, arrived at the home of his new parents Mr. and Mrs. Ted Liggett, very late in September.

YWCA Class

The Lincoln YWCA is presenting a class in investments which will begin at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Open to both men and women, the six-weeks course will be instructed by Miss Mary Chapin.

The Star In Suburbia

We have much to tell about our Eastridge suburb this Tuesday morning — such as the news of a "Little Ladies Dress Up" birthday party. It was last Saturday afternoon when Jane Wicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Wicks, celebrated her sixth birthday at her home with her friends all dressed up in their mother's high heels, purses, hats and dresses. Jane's sister, Sue Ann was hostess, and her brother, David, was butler. Young ladies joining in the fun were Pam Orcutt, Stephanie Loisell, Barbara Fosterman, Pam and Patty Hirschman, Marcia Kinney, and Jan Patterson.

Another recent birthday celebrant was Adrianne Huelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Huelle, who was honored at a morning party, followed by luncheon at her home Saturday on her third anniversary. Guests included Billy Wilson, Nan Lambert, Tommy McCracken, Joey Grantski, and Deborah Thompson.

And then we heard that Mrs. Norman Stones was a hostess at her home last Wednesday evening when she entertained the members of her sewing club. Those present at the dessert-affair were Mrs. Duane Grantski, Mrs. Bo Wilson, Mrs. Bud Lambert, Mrs. Morris Huelle, Mrs. Richard Stehly, Mrs. Max Hulbert, Mrs. Tom Tompkins, Mrs. Hoyt Powell, Mrs. Dale McCracken, Mrs. Gordon Pejsar, and Mrs. Bill Sonderegger.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neal helped celebrate a birthday on Saturday night at the University Club. Mrs. Neal's mother, Mrs. T. F. Dodson of Beatrice was the birthday celebrant, and other guests were Dr. Dodson and Mr. Neal's mother, Mrs. Lela Neal of Lincoln.

Visiting in Eastridge this week end were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armstrong of Casper, Wyo. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Nissen after the game last Saturday.

Turning now to vacation news we learned that Mrs. Stanley Hagen and her mother, Mrs. Peter Hansen have just returned from a trip to the East. In Bethesda, Md., they were the guests of Mrs. Hagen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson and their children, Karen, Kathy, Jeannie, and Mary Louise. They also visited Mrs. Hagen's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. George Sears and their children, Harold, Marilyn, and Carol, in Wilmington, Del.

It was Friday morning when Mrs. Edward Ellickson entertained at a neighborhood coffee at her home. Those present were Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. Harold Proctor, Mrs. Earl Jenkins, Mrs. Jim Farrell, Mrs. Bill Cox, and Mrs. Richard Knight.

A hostess at her home at another neighborhood coffee was Mrs. Dean Tompkins Friday morning. Included on the guest list were Mrs. Bo Wilson, Mrs. Bud Lambert, Mrs. Norman Stones, Mrs. Duane Grantski, Mrs. Max Hulbert, Mrs. Carl Kugel, and Mrs. Art Mapstead.

Dear Abby . . .

He Did All Right!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: While my husband was in the service he lived with a Japanese woman in Japan off post. He lived like this for almost three years and he also married her in a Church. I wanted to go overseas with him but he told me a Pfc. couldn't take his wife. What I want to know is: "WHY DID HE GET THE GOOD CONDUCT MEDAL?"

ONE OF HIS WIVES

DEAR ONE: Because his martial behavior was better than his marital behavior.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: We rent our upstairs apartment to an elderly couple. They don't have their own telephone so every morning she comes down here and asks me to dial for her because she can't see very well. I always do. Then she asks me to listen for her as she can't hear very well, either. I don't mind doing this to help her order her groceries, but she can keep me on the telephone all morning with calls that don't mean a thing. Will you please tell me how I can explain it to her without being disrespectful to the aged?

LADY DOWNSTAIRS

DEAR LADY: Tell her plainly and firmly (as you would a child) that you don't mind helping her with her necessary telephone calls, but the others will have to wait till you have more time. Be gentle. Being dependent in one's old age is no fun.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column where a man who signed himself "Lonesome Al" was looking for a companion for week-end trips, hunting, fishing, movies or an occasional evening. He said he was not interested in marriage. I think he and I have a lot in common as I am also lonesome and am not interested in marriage. Could you please send me his address? GEORGE

DEAR GEORGE: Sorry... I do not find ladies for gentlemen, gentlemen for ladies, or gentlemen for gentlemen.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am getting married in two weeks at a chapel wedding and my problem is this: I am 3 months pregnant and I want to wear a white ballerina-length dress. It is NOT a regular wedding dress, but a dressy cocktail dress. My mother knows I am pregnant but nobody else does as it is not obvious. She does not think it is proper for me to wear white, but I bought the dress already and I can't take it back. Please help me make up my mind.

WAITING

DEAR WAITING: Wear another dress or have the white one tinted.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Gov. Collins Asks Church Leaders For New Ideas Against Racial Crisis

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP) — Florida Gov. Leroy Collins appealed to church leaders for "new ideas" to solve the nation's racial crisis—with respect both for law and Christian principles.

"The people of America are now calling anxiously for new ideas for resolving the racial conflicts which beset them," the southern Democratic governor said.

He told the triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church that the answer "will not come from the extremists on either side."

The convention, meeting in the South for the first time since 1925, is being held on a non-segregated basis.

'Domestic Peace'

Surely, Collins said, a plan for "domestic peace" can be produced in harmony both with Christian conscience and the law that can be "supported honorably by people of every race, creed and color."

Collins, an Episcopal layman, said any solution to the race problem must "be idealistic and at the same time embrace reason and common sense."

He said the "most tragic aspect" of the situation is "the lack of effort to find a constructive way out of the darkness."

Meanwhile a 9-way contest emerged as the convention began the task of choosing a successor to the church's presiding bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill.

Naming a man to this top post is of long range concern to the church. He holds office until he retires at 68. Bishop Sherrill is retiring after serving 11 years.

3 Candidates

A nominating committee headed by the Rt. Rev. Oliver J. Hart, bishop of Pennsylvania, proposed 3 candidates, including:

The Rt. Revs. Everett Holland Jones, bishop of West Texas; Harry Sherbourne Kennedy, bishop of Honolulu, and Arthur Carl Lichtenberger, bishop of Missouri.

Six others were nominated from the floor of the House of Bishops, the upper house of the two-branch church government. They are:

The Rt. Revs. Stephen F. Bayne Jr., bishop of Olympia, Wash.; Noble C. Powell, bishop of Maryland; Henry I. Louttit, bishop of south Florida; Richard S. Emrich, bishop of Michigan; Austin Pardue, bishop of Pittsburgh and Bishop Hart.

A decision on the election, which must be concurred in by the church's lower House of Deputies, doesn't come until Saturday.

The deputies, made up of both laymen and clergy, reelected the Rev. Canon Theodore Wedel, Washington, D.C., as president of that body.

Offer Accepted

Oslo (AP) — Norway has accepted an American offer to deliver Sidewinder air-to-air missiles to the Norwegian Air Force this year, an informed source said here.

The source said that the rockets, said to be the deadliest operational air-to-air arm in existence, have been included in the 1958 military aid program for Norway.

Guilty Plea To Burglary Tool Charge

Henry Reichel of 1207 Charleston pleaded guilty Monday in Lancaster District Court to a charge of possession of burglary tools.

Reichel, 35, had been arrested by police for investigation of a series of recent burglaries in Lincoln. Reichel, however, refused to admit any of them.

But he was charged with having various burglary tools —including a crowbar, two punches, two chisels, 5 screwdrivers, a sledge hammer and an ax — in his possession, and entered the guilty plea. Judge Harry A. Spencer deferred sentencing pending an investigation of the case by the Adult Probation Office.

Gomulka Plans Visit To Moscow

Warsaw (AP) — Poland's Wladyslaw Gomulka announced he will visit Moscow the last two weeks of this month.

Word of the visit by Gomulka, Premier Joseph Cyrankiewicz and 9 other top Polish Reds touched off immediate speculation in western circles here.

General opinion has been that Soviet-Polish relations have been entering a new period of unusual warmth. The visit is expected to underline this fact.

Gomulka and his party are expected to discuss closer political and economic links with Moscow, possibly take up military questions and also review the international situation made tense by Red Chinese shelling of Quemoy in the Formosa Strait.

No 'Lub-Dub'

Kansas City, Kan. (AP) — A physician listening to the heart of a patient at the University of Kansas Medical Center had expected to hear the usual "lub-dub" sound over the electrocardiograph sound equipment.

But to his surprise he got the chatter of an announcer giving play-by-play description of the World series.

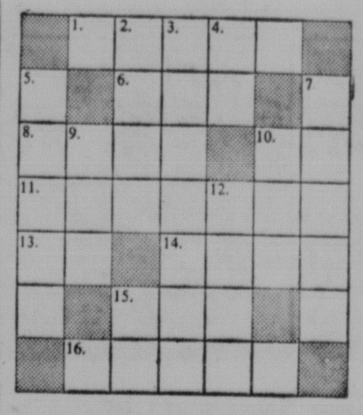

A check by experts brought this explanation: So many patients were listening to radios that some of the current was being fed back into the ground. The radio signal then was picked up in the sound equipment through the ground current.

EXPERTS' FAVORITE

It's no accident that over 90 percent of all of America's restaurants — from the famous Waldorf Astoria, to the smallest hot dog stand—use natural gas for cooking! Gas cooks faster, cleaner, more economically . . . actually, it makes food taste better! Best way I know to cook like an expert is to start with the fuel the experts use — plus a brand new 1958 gas range! So many wonderful models to choose from; so many brand new features. See all of them, at your local gas company or gas appliance dealer.

ROSY TABLE

A prettily folded napkin adds a festive air to any table! Next time you have a luncheon or dinner, delight guests with this pretty rose-fold. Use either white or colored napkins. Bring the four corners of the napkin in to meet at a center point. Repeat first step with the newly formed square. Turn napkin over, bring the four points to center again. Turn over again. Pull out hidden corners to form petals. Pretty?

BRIGHT SPOTS

Have trouble finding the keyhole at night? Outline it with luminous paint. Might prevent an accident, too, if you paint the bottom step with it (especially basement stairs). A touch of it on the light switch can be so convenient. Bet you can think of a dozen more ways to use it!

HOT IDEA

"Everything tastes so good, but the rolls are cold already!" . . . Sound familiar? Next time fool 'em; heat rolls in your gas oven, along with a ceramic tile. Line bottom of serving basket with hot tile, pop rolls in the basket; cover with a pretty napkin. Rolls stay pipin' hot throughout the meal!

FEATHER GINGERBREAD

Mrs. Hilary Wolff of Omaha, Nebraska, serves this wonderful gingerbread hot with butter or sauce. Sift together ¼ cup sugar, 1 cup sifted cake flour, 1 tsp. soda, 1 tsp. ginger, 1 tsp. cinnamon, ½ tsp. salt. Add to dry ingredients, ¼ cup dark molasses, ¼ cup sweet milk, ¼ cup sour milk, and beat for two minutes. Add 1 egg, well beaten and ¼ cup melted butter. Beat again for 3 or 4 minutes. Bake in greased and floured 8 inch pan for 25 to 30 minutes in 350 degree gas oven. Deliciously serves 6 to 8 people.

WIDE-AWAKE NAP

Was surprised to see a friend of mine pressing her rug, till she told me why. When she moved furniture, dents were left in the rug where the heavy pieces had been. She covered each spot with a damp cloth and pressed with a hot iron. (A steam iron will do the trick, too.) The moist heat caused the nap to spring back. She then brushed the spot with a stiff brush — and the dent was gone!

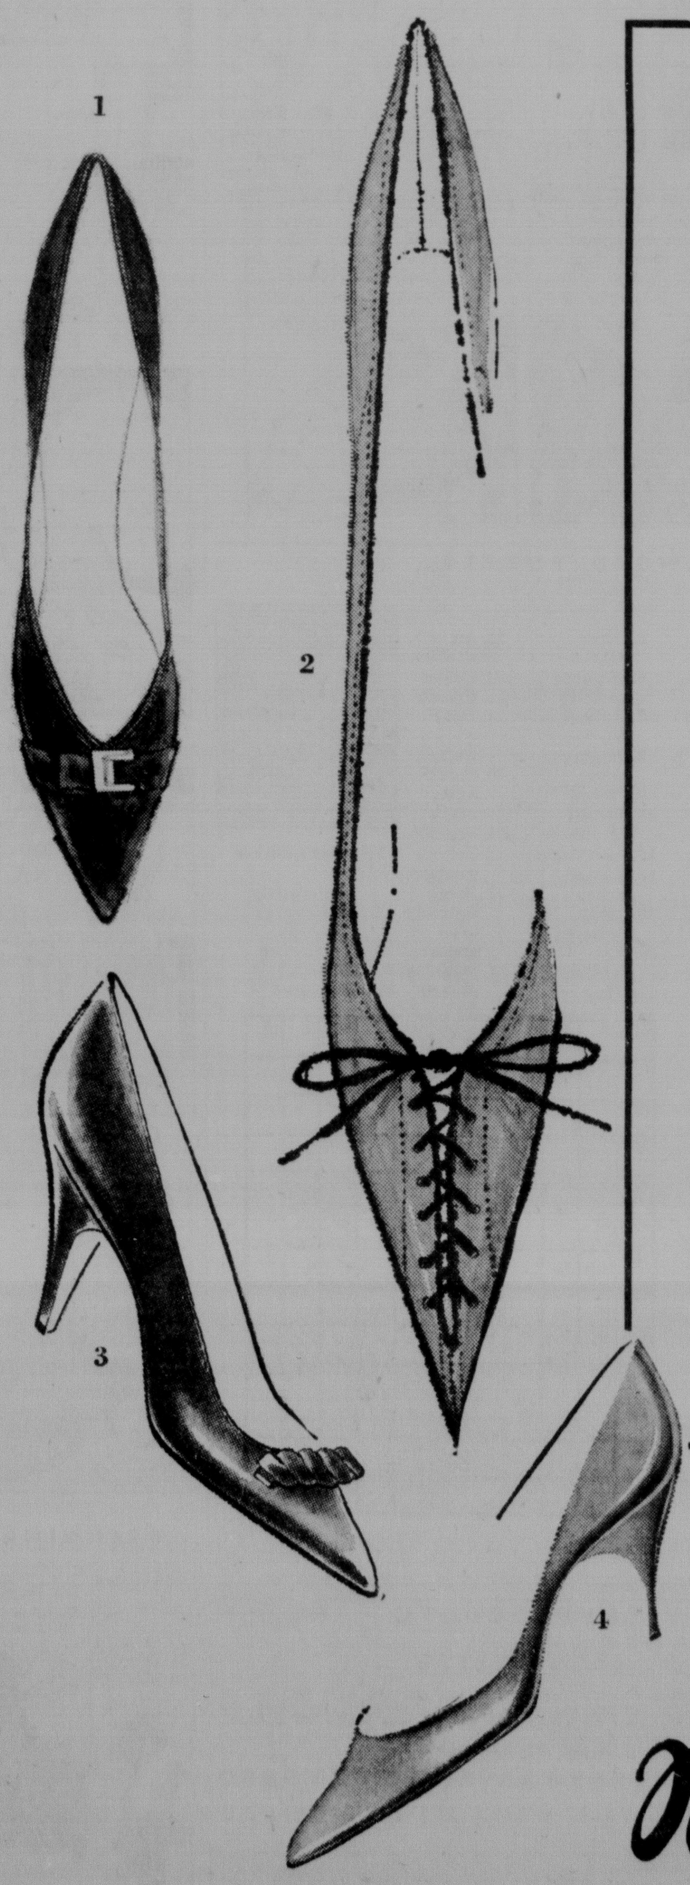

EIGHTH WONDER

Far back as 1821, houses in the village of Fredonia, New York, were lighted by natural gas, which flowed from crevices in slate rock along Canadaway Creek. These "beautiful clear gas lights" were pronounced the "Eighth Wonder of the World" by the German scientist, Alexander von Humboldt! Today, wonders made possible by natural gas are too numerous to compile. The food we eat, the shelter over our heads and the clothing we wear—all processed or prepared by natural gas! Northern Natural Gas Company pipes this miracle fuel to your local gas company, who serves you with a never-ending supply. A constant promise of easy living!

Fine Fielding Aids NY Win

Classic Shifts To Milwaukee With Braves Ahead 3-2

By Oscar Fraley

New York (UPI)—"Bullet Bob" Turley proved his class as well as his courage Monday when he pitched a five-hit 7-0 victory to lift the New York Yankees off the floor as they finally caught up to Lew Burdette and narrowed the Milwaukee Braves' World Series margin 3 games to two.

Those once-mighty Yankees were really "down" as they went out into the 50-degree sunshine with holes in their bats and lumps in their throats to face the man who had beaten them 4 times in a row—3 times last year and once in this classic. They needed to lose to him only once more to close it out again.

Nor was there much hope for them among the 65,279 because their fielding has been inept and Turley had been slugged aside as Burdette beat them in the second game. "Bullet Bob" that time lasted only 25 well-battered pitches.

But this time the baby-faced right-hander proved himself the same pitching man who ran up 21 victories in the American League this season. Using a curve ball effectively along with his "smoke," he fanned 10 of those bush-tailed Braves. And he capped the climax of a 6-run Yankee 6th inning by driving home the final two runs.

He had a lot of help as the Yankees at long last drove Burdette to cover. Gil McDougald gave him a slim early lead with a solo homer in the 3rd; Elston Howard made a brilliant diving catch in the top of the 6th to choke off a Braves' rally which might have turned the tide; Yogi Berra smashed his way into the record books with a two-run double in the big 6th — and muscular "Moose" Skowron ended the amazing success story of Burdette with a bases-loaded single good for one more tally.

It was a comeback which kep the Yankees alive and sent both teams winging back to Milwaukee for the 6th game Wednesday — after a day off for travel.

And the Yankees earned it with good pitching by the big fellow who let them down the first time around, as well as driving, heads-up play. It was a different ball club. Because, before the game, even the vendors selling lineup cards outside the ball park were shouting:

"Get'cher programs! You can't tell which Yankee players make the errors without a program!"

Turley, in the Yankee doghouse since that second game defeat, opened shakily as he walked leadoff hitter Bill Bruton. But then, breathing deeply before each no-windup pitch, he got the next 3 men

Class C Grid Rivalry Comes To Boil Again

. . . Alma, Cambridge Play This Week

By Al Beebe

They've got quite a Class C rivalry going down in the Southern part of Nebraska, and it comes to a boil again this week.

That's when Alma, possessor of Nebraska's longest winning streak, makes the 50-mile jaunt west to Cambridge. And Cambridge would like nothing better than to puncture that 22-game unbeaten skein.

The Trojans have had two shots at it in the past two years, and been nosed out both times. A new coach, Charles Brown, will give a try this year with a speedy squad boasting 10 lettermen.

Cambridge is ranked 5th in The Star's Class C list this week, while Alma has dropped to the 8th position.

Last year, Alma had a 9-0 season, including a disputed 13-12 nod over Cambridge, whose partisans felt there may have been some chicanery involved in the game. They'll be after revenge, since that was the only blot on the 8-game Trojan slate. Alma ranked 4th, one notch ahead of Cambridge, last year.

In 1956, Alma started its win skein, although tied by Beaver City in the second game of the year. Alma took a 7-0 nod over Cambridge that year, and was rated 4th, compared to the No. 9 spot for Cambridge.

Both clubs have impressive records again this year, although Cambridge has dropped one contest, a 14-13 game to Class B Grant. The Trojans downed Wauneta 27-6, Oxford 48-6, and Beaver City 56-0.

Alma has scored wins over Orleans (26-0), Beaver City (38-0), Franklin (34-7) and Bertrand (31-0).

The Alma stock dipped this week when Merna's stock rose. Merna smashed West Kearney, 33-0. West Kearney had beaten Bertrand by about the same score Alma did.

Merna climbed to No. 3 this week, behind Oshkosh and David City St. Mary's. Hastings St. Cecilia moved up to 4th from 5th, while Sutton, 4th last week, fell to 7th behind Cambridge and West Point Guardian Angels.

Red Cloud is 9th this week, and Waverly moves into the list on the bottom rung, replacing Oseceola.

In 8-man ball, the top 6 positions stayed the same, with Red Willow still the leader. Bancroft and Mullen, 7-8 last week, were both beaten and dropped from the list, with Spalding Academy and Milford moving up.

Johnson and Elba replaced Bancroft and Mullen.

The big changes in the 6-man roster saw Eagle drop from second to 9th, and Stella move into the list replacing Tobias. Stella, improving rapidly, leaped all the way to 4th.

Eagle, which had romped through 3 foes with ease, was pressed to beat Talmage, 18-14, when 8 of the first 10 Eagle players had injuries. Eagle has this week off for repairs.

Most satisfying element of the Cornhuskers' surprising football team this fall is the way the light and inexperienced youngsters have mixed it up with bigger and deeper teams and came out of the fracas without any injuries.

If even one or two of Nebraska's top players are forced to sit out a game with a severe charley horse, a bad sprain or a broken bone it would go hard with the personnel-shy Huskers.

Against massive teams like Penn State and Purdue a few injuries of that nature are expected, but Coach Bill Jennings' lads—in top physical condition—haven't been hit by the injury bug.

It is obvious that their conditioning has been the reason boys like sophomore Don Fricke, Dennis Emanuel, Roland McDole, Larry Naviaux, Max Martz, Pat Fischer and others have been able to go the distance without being hurt by bigger and fresher opponents.

During the long, rugged fall camp many of the boys undoubtedly felt they were being overworked. I doubt if they feel that way now.

Because that same conditioning has been responsible for their ability to go full speed in the final quarter, the period in which they have done all of their scoring while winning two games.

More on the Huskers: Reader Ben Goble of Lincoln sends his congratulations for plugging Beatrice's Max Martz . . . "I'm behind each and every fellow wearing the scarlet and cream . . . and that includes Pat Fischer. Nobody inthe stadium was happier than I when he dashed those 92 yards against Penn State . . . it was a brilliant run, but Pat got a lot of help and he was quick to admit it . . . in short, I'm a little fed up with seeing the name Fischer in banner headlines every time I pick up a newspaper . . . If I were Max Martz, Carroll Zaruba, Dennis Emanuel or anybody else on that thin but gallant roster, I think I would be a little perturbed at the individual angle played up by the newspapers . . . One GI never won a war all by himself and one football player never won a game all by himself.

". . . Let me say again that I certainly have no quarrel with Pat Fischer . . . I'll be cheering for him every Saturday just like I cheered for Cletus, Kenny and Rex . . . But I'll be cheering for him not as Pat Fischer but as a member of a very deserving outfit."

Bill Murrell, Lincoln businessman, saw two of the Series games in Milwaukee courtesy of little Bobby Shantz, injured Yankee pitcher who was a darling of Lincoln fans during his Western League career.

Highlight of his Milwaukee stay occurred in the resort where he was guest of Shantz at the Yankees' quar-

Knight Reserves Get 4th Victory

Crete—Lincoln Southeast's reserve football squad used a run with a recovered fumble and a pass interception to spring to its 4th win without a loss, beating Crete Reserves here Monday, 27-13.

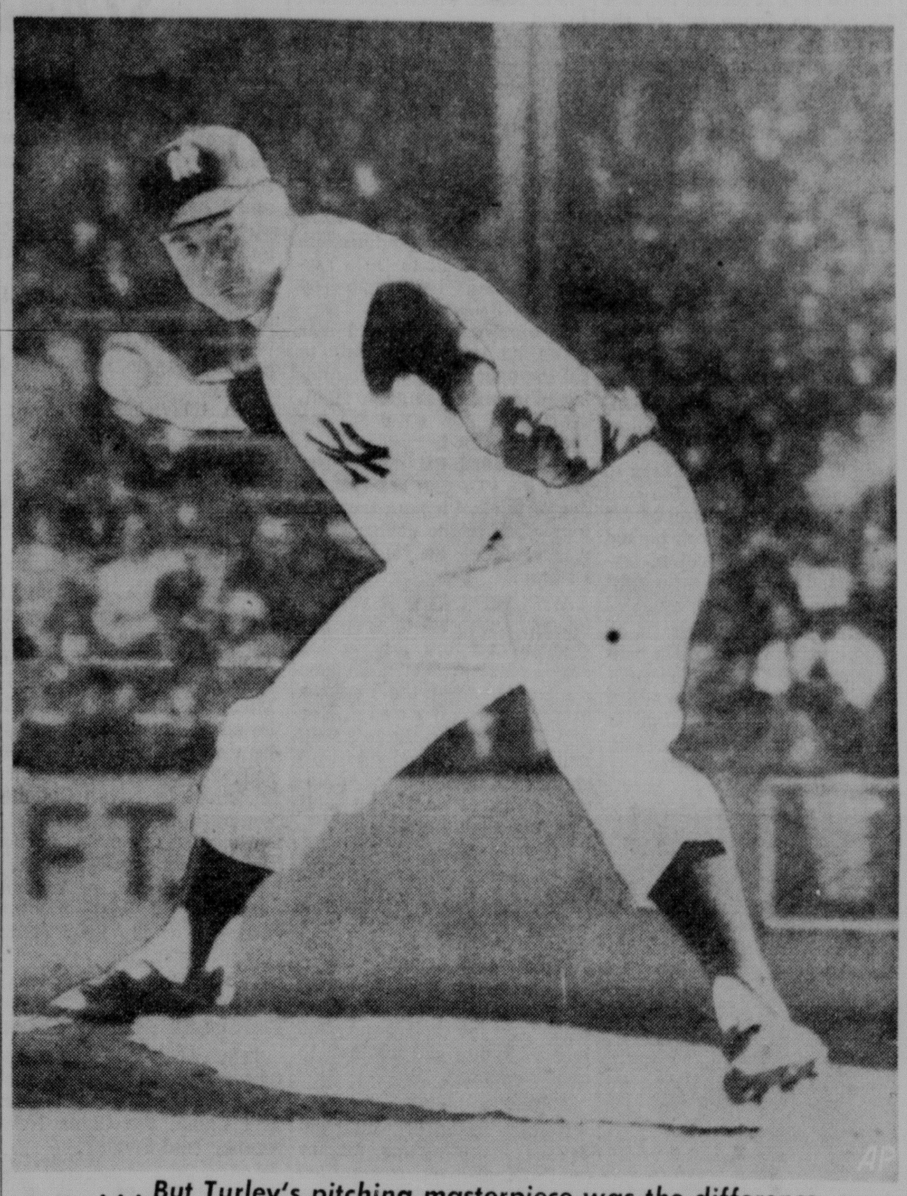

End Jim McGinnis picked up the loose ball and went 40 yards to score in the first quarter. Larry Keller's 80-yard pass interception provided the second touchdown, and Jerry Hunt passed for two TDs to climax the scoring.

Courtney To Harvard

Cambridge, Mass. (AP)—Tom Courtney, Olympic 800 meter champion and holder of the world record of 1:46.8 for 880 yards, Monday was named assistant track coach at Harvard University.

. . . But Turley's pitching masterpiece was the difference.

Casey: 'We Looked More Like Yankees'

New York, (AP) — "We looked more like Yankees," said Casey Stengel. "Our pitcher was amazing, we got some hits and that leftfielder made the key play of the game."

The creased-faced New York manager obviously was pleased at the sudden rejuvenation of his team which sent the World Series back to Milwaukee for decision after 7-0 rout of the Braves.

"That catch by Howard stopped a rally and kept the game going our way," he added. "It was a big play."

In the 6th inning, after Bill Bruton had led off with a single over short, Red Schoendienst of the Braves sent a looping drive into short leftfield, where young Norm Siebern left 4 balls drop for safeties Sunday.

Elston Howard, who replaced Siebern in leftfield, made a spectacular diving catch of the ball. He caught it at his shoetops, rifled it into the infield and doubled Bruton off first base. It was the only serious gesture the Braves made.

"I knew I had it all the time," Howard explained casually in another part of the dressing room. "Else I would not have dived for it.

"I fell on my knees and stomach. My legs are still sore. But I didn't have any trouble with the sun. I saw everything out there."

Stengel explained why he benched Siebern for Howard.

"It wasn't that I lost confidence in the kid," he said. "We won the pennant with him in leftfield. But I knew he didn't sleep a wink for worrying. He would have been tense and anxious out there. I had no other choice."

The Yankee manager had high praise for the pitching performance of cherub-faced Bob Turley, who whitewashed the Braves on 5 hits, striking out 10.

"He had beautiful control. He baffled them at the plate. It was the best series game he has ever pitched. His fast ball had a lot of snap and he had his curve going great.

"The difference between Turley and in the game at Milwaukee (when he was shelled from the mound in the first inning) was this: When he threw a curve Monday, it was a strike and they couldn't hit it. The other day, when he threw it, it was a ball and they didn't have to hit it."

Stengel is playing it cagy about his probable starting pitcher Wednesday, but indicated he may go with his bespectacled relief ace, Ryne Duren.

"I won't know about Larsen (Don Larsen, the perfect game pitcher of 1956) until I see him work out today. It does not look good. Larsen says his arm still feels sore.

"I can go with either Art Ditmar (9-8 for the season) or Duren (6-4) or even Johnny Kucks (8-8). But I won't say now. I may know tonight. Afain I may not."

The robust, 214-pound Turley called the game "the best I ever pitched."

"I threw mostly breaking stuff, overhand and sidearm," he said. "I warmed up less than usual about 10 minutes before the game. I knew when my control was good and I felt confident.

"Never at any time during the game did I feel that I was going to let them get away from me, not even in the 6th when Bruton and Schoendienst got hold of the ball. I felt I could hold them."

Catcher Yogi Berra also called Turley's performance one of the pitcher's best. "He put the ball where he wanted it," the veteran catcher said.

Berra was surprised to learn at the end of the game that his double in the 6th inning put him ahead of one of the late Babe Ruth's many records.

It was Berra's 58th World Series hit, tieing a record held by Frankie Frisch, and it jumped his total number of bases in World Series play to 97, surpassing Ruth's 96.

Jennings Respects K-State

Expects Another Knockdown Game

By Don Bryant

Nebraska escaped the Iowa State game without any serious injuries.

But two starters — tackle Duane Mongerson and halfback Pat Fischer — will be kept out of contact work until midweek, Coach Bill Jennings said Monday.

Both are bruised and fatigued, Jennings said. Fischer played a great part of the game against the Cyclones, despite the fact that he was still somewhat weak from an attack of the flu.

Jennings said he expected both Mongerson and Fischer to be able to go full speed Saturday against Kansas State in the Band Day contest at Memorial Stadium.

Reserves Scrimmage

Monday afternoon the boys who carried most of the load against I-State took things relatively easy.

But those who saw little or no action, had a round of scrimmage.

Brede May Play

Roger Brede, letterman end who suffered a broken wrist in fall camp, may play against Kansas State "if he's physically able and we need him," Jennings said.

The Husker coach said Brede is considered only a limited duty player this week, if he can play at all.

"We won't know how strong he is until later in the week," Bill said. "But if he would play at all it would be very limited."

Wildcats Tough

Jennings said he was looking forward to "another knock-down, dragout affair" this week.

"Kansas State is a tough team, with plenty of ability to move the ball," Jennings said.

The Wildcats used the Wing T offense with the flanker set as a wingback and they've been able to make plenty of yardage in 3 games.

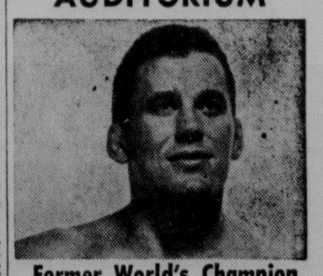

Dick Monroe, who scouted the Wildcats against Utah State, said:

"Kansas State is a good-looking team, but they let Utah State get in front 14-0 before they went to work. And then they tried to catch up too fast."

600 Seats Left

There were 600 Stadium seats remaining Monday for the Band Day game with K-State, according to NU business manager A. J. Lewandowski.

I Didn't Have Atom Ball—Lew

New York (AP)—A so-so Lew Burdette, not bubbling for once but not flat, either, sat in front of his locker waiting for the sportswriters Monday after Milwaukee's 5th game defeat in the World Series.

The big righthander who made the New York Yankees look ridiculous in 4 previous starts over the last two series, was rapped like an old pal in this one. Not hard, but good, getting chased in a 6-run 6th inning as the Yankees made off with a 7-0 victory behind righthanded Bob Turley.

"I didn't have the atom ball Monday," said Burdette, who had figured to wrap up the series for the Braves in this one. "They were just hitting it where nobody was. They weren't hitting the ball hard.

"They hit you harder, but right where somebody is and it's a double play and you're a great pitcher.

"Berra's hit (a double down the right field line that scored the first run in the big 6th was the only real good hit they got," said Burdette. "It was a sinker, right over the plate, but going down."

Until the 6th, Burdette was almost his old self, with Billy Bruton and Eddie Matthews getting him out of possible jams with fine plays.

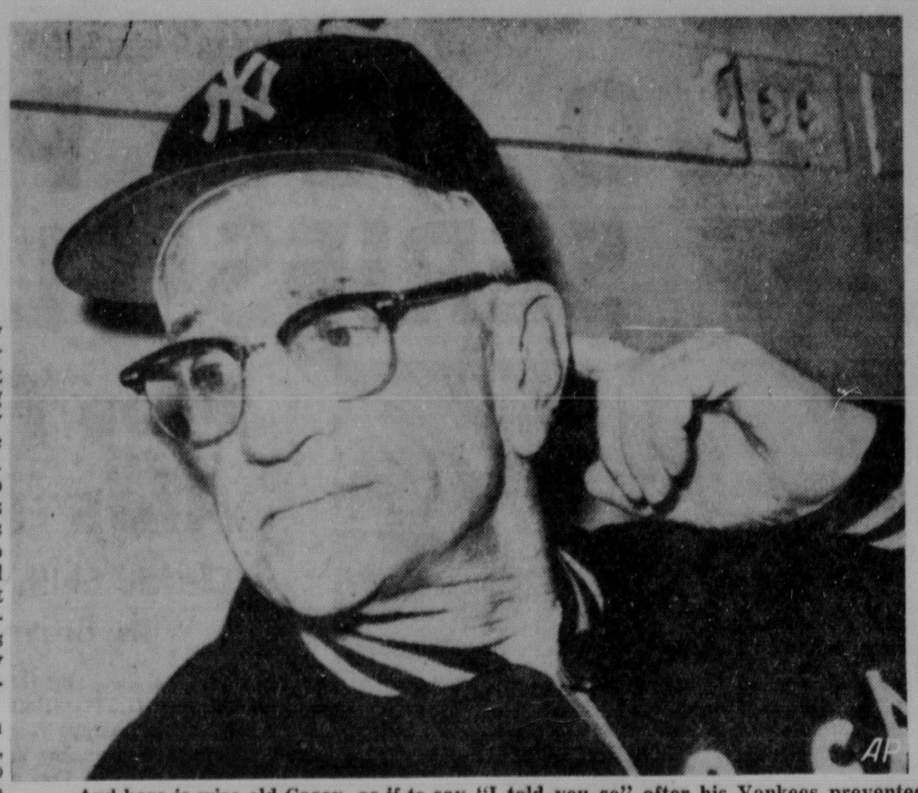

Still, he trailed 1-0, giving up a leadoff home run to Gil McDougald in the 3rd. The ball hit the left field foul pole screen.

"It was a fast ball up here," said Burdette, putting his hand at his eyes to show how high the pitch was. "It wasn't anywhere near the plate, but McDougald must been lookin' for a fast ball and decided that was the one.

"It hit a foul pole 301 feet away. If the pole's 310 away, it's a foul ball."

The Braves were a happy bunch, proving the change they've gone through since wininng the title a year ago.

They hustled to and from the showers to be ready to make their plane for home and Wednesday's 6th game.

. . . And here is wise old Casey, as if to say "I told you so" after his Yankees prevented the Braves from winning the World Series Monday.

Turley's 7-0 Shutout Sends Series Back To Milwaukee

in order. In the second he got the first man up and then walked Frank Torre. But "Bullet Bob" went to the curve ball and sent sweeping pitches past both Del Crandall and Johnny Logan for called 3rd strikes.

He fanned the first two men in the 3rd, for 4 strikeouts in a row, but then gave up the first hit of the game to Red Schoendienst. Turley didn't waver. He fanned Eddie Mathews to strike out the side.

McDougald sent the Yankees into the lead in the 3rd with a well-hit shot which struck the screen of the left field foul pole — fair by only inches yet still a home run.

The Yankees almost got to Burdette in the 4th after the game was delayed temporarily while 3 Cuban rebel sympathizers leaped out of the boxes along first base carrying a banner proclaiming "Czcastro Frees Cuba."

Trying to free Burdette from pitching chores for the day, Jerry Lumpe singled over second and Mickey Mantle singled to right. Lumpe held at second because he had to dance out of the way of Mantle's hit. But Berra slapped into a double play so that threat went for naught.

Then came the big 6th in which the game could have gone either way.

Bruton opened the Braves' half with a single to center as the ball took a freak bounce at the edge of the infield and leaped over Tony Kubek's head. The Braves put on the hit and run and Red Schoendienst sent a looping fly to short left center which looked like a sure hit.

But there came Howard, swooping down like a swallow and snaring the ball with a head-long dive. Scrambling to his feet, he whipped the ball to McDougald. It bounced off his glove, but Skowron picked it up and tagged Bruton, trying to slide back into first base, for a double play.

Hank Bauer started it by singling through the hole only to stand there as Lumpe went down bunting foul on a 3rd strike in a vain attempt to sacrifice. Mantle came through after that with a single to center which sent Bauer to 3rd.

Berra stepped in then, hitting a lowly .117 for the series. This time the chunky Yankee catcher doubled into the right field corner to score Bauer and send Mantle to 3rd. It raised Berra's total bases in World Series to play to 97, breaking Babe Ruth's mark of 96, and also marked his 58th World Series hit to tie a record posted long ago by Frankie Frisch.

Howard came on and was given an intentional walk to fill the bases and Skowron followed up with a single to right, scoring Mantle and leaving the bases filled.

That ended the mastery of Burdette and the rubber-armed West Virginia took the long walk to the showers. He was replaced by young Juan Pizarro.

McDougald kept it rolling, lofting a high fly to deep left which Covington lost in the sun — just as Norm Siebern did Sunday when the Yankees dropped the 4th game. The ball bounced into the left field bullpen for a ground-rule double, Berra and Howard romping across the plate and Skowron churning into 3rd.

Kubek struck out but Turley still didn't have enough. He flailed a single to left field to send across Skowron and McDougald with the 5th and 6th runs of the inning and a 7-0 Yankee lead. Turley went to second on a wild pitch but Bauer, up for the second time in the inning, struck out to end the inning.

That was plenty.

Neither manager would announce his 6th-game pitcher for Wednesday's resumption at Milwaukee but both clubs were optimistic. The Braves figured they could get the job done by winning at least one out of two in their home park. And the Yankees figured that "Bullet Bob" had brought them off the floor and back into contention.

Lions Peddle Layne

. . . Steelers Give Morrall, 2 Draft Choices

Pittsburgh, (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers Monday obtained quarterback Bobby Layne from the Detroit Lions in exchange for quarterback Earl Morrall and two future draft choices — one in 1959 and one in 1960.

Steeler coach Buddy Parker said he made the trade because Layne "is a top flight quarterback." Parker added:

"I don't think Morrall was a top flight quarterback. He may be in the future. But he isn't right now."

Parker said he wanted to give the Steelers more punch.

"Layne will help us immensely," Parker added. "We have got our running game going and we've got good receiving. With the addition of Layne, we might get back into the race."

Last year Morrall attempted 289 passes and completed 139 for 1,900 yards and 11 touchdowns.

The Steelers acquired Morrall, a former Michigan State star, in 1957 from the San Francisco 49ers for lineman Marve Matuszak and two draft choices.

Layne, former Texas University star, is in his 11th season in professional football.

He was drafted by the Chicago Bears, later played for the old New York Bulidogs, then came to Detroit, where he played under Parker, former coach of the Lions.

In 10 seasons of pro ball, Layne has tossed 129 touchdown passes. He's attempted 2,518 passes and completed 1,233 for 17,567 yards. In 1956 he led the league in scoring with 99 points.

In Detroit, Lions coach George Wilson said:

"I believe we got a good deal on the trade. In Morrall we are getting a proven ball player and new blood."

Wilson, who took over the Detroit reins last year when Parker quit the Lions, said he had known for a long time that he would trade either Layne or Tobin Rote.

Having two top quarterbacks, he said, neither of them got to play enough.

The one to go was Layne, he said, "because I would have been run out of town if we had traded Rote."

He referred to Rote's outstanding play in the stretch drive to the NFL championship last season after Layne was sidelined with an injury.

Wilson said he now considered Rote the Lions' No. 1 quarterback.

Mrs. Ruth and I have forgotten our room key. Could you send it up please?" The wives of all-time Yankee greats Lou Gehrig and Babe Ruth were guests of the Yanks during the Milwaukee stay.

Mrs. Ruth later sought out Shantz and asked for his autograph, Murrell noted. After obliging, Shantz turned to Murrell and remarked, "I should be getting her autograph. Imagine, Mrs. Babe Ruth asking for my autograph!"

A television re-run of the "Jackie Robinson Story" reminded me that some 10 years ago Negroes weren't playing in the majors. Be kinda hard to imagine the Braves without such great players as Hank Aaron, Wes Covington or Billy Bruton . . . although the Yankees would be more than pleased if Bruton hadn't been around the last few days.

California's Saturday upset of highly-favored Washington State undoubtedly made Cal Coach Pete Elliott's night a lot more restful. Dick Hyland, veteran Los Angeles Times football writer, penned before the game: " . . . Pete blew a gasket when his team took a trouncing from Michigan State . . . he kicked in a locker door or two he was so displeased with the showing of his players . . . he must be getting a bit tired of making excuses to himself, the California alumni and the public for his team's showing . . . with Cal meeting Washington State, Navy, Southern Cal, Oregon and UCLA in that order, the Cal outlook is very dim . . . unless Bear alumni have changed their habits greatly, this is not a situation to their liking."

Hyland went on to hint that Cal alumni already had contacted Washington State Coach Jim Sutherland about taking over the Bear chores next year. Pete isn't out of the fire yet, but by beating Sutherland and Washington State handily, 34-14, it took some of the heat off.

Power Index Sticks With Oklahoma

By Dick Dunkel

Of all leading college football teams, Oklahoma, Army, and Wisconsin filter best — so far.

Although the Sooners' rating dropped last Saturday, when Oregon nearly clogged their percolator, 6-0, they still own the nation's highest Power Index.

In winning twice to date, Oklahoma has set an average scoring superiority of 19.5 points over opposition indexed at 97.5 for a total of 117.0.

Much closer to the top this week are No. 2 Army (113.7) after beating Penn State, 26-0; and No. 3 Wisconsin (111.7) after a 50-0 win over Marquette. Both are 2-0.

Other leaders, their records, and latest scores: No. 4 Purdue (2-0), 24-0 over Rice; No. 5 Auburn (2-0), 30-8 over Chattanooga; No. 6 Mississippi (3-0), 21-0 over Trinity Tex.; No. 7 Oregon (1-1), 0-6 to Oklahoma; No. 8 Michigan and No. 9 Michigan State are both 1-0-1 after tieing each other, 12-12; No. 10 Notre Dame (2-0), 14-6 over SMU.

Following are the nation's leading raters in the official "major" and "small college" groups (these are NCAA divisions, not ours):

Auburn Takes Familiar Place In AP Grid Poll

. . . Sooners Replaced As Nation's Top Team

By The AP

The experts, who have had a little trouble agreeing on the early rankings of major college football teams, fell back on an old reliable Monday—1957 champion Auburn.

The rugged Plainsmen, who strenuously resist efforts to score against them, moved to the No. 1 spot in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters after Oregon's defense deflated Oklahoma.

Auburn became the 3rd team in as many weeks to hold the No. 1 spot. Ohio State, the pre-season pick, led the first weekly poll then Oklahoma moved up last week.

But last Saturday Oklahoma's Sooners barely squeezed out a 6-0 decision over then-unranked Oregon and Ohio State had its second close call, beating Washington 12-7. Auburn rolled to a 30-8 victory over a surprisingly rough little Chattanooga team.

As a result, 43 of 107 voters in this week's AP poll put Auburn on top and only 24 picked Oklahoma first. The remaining first place votes were scattered among 12 other teams, including one for two-time loser, Southern Methodist.

On the usual point scoring basis of 10 for each first place vote, 9 for second, etc. Auburn topped Oklahoma by 99 points — 813 to 714. Army's high-scoring team climbed up from 5th to 3rd in the ratings and Notre Dame from 7th to 4th. They'll settle their relative positions when they meet next Saturday.

Ohio State dropped to 5th, followed by Wisconsin, Mississippi, Clemson, Michigan State and Pittsburgh. Michigan State dropped from 4th ranking after its hard-earned 12 12 tie against Michigan. Iowa, held to a tie by the Air Force Academy, lost its place in the Top 10 to Pittsburgh, whose 3rd victory of the season was its first over Minnesota in a 25-year rivalry.

Pitt takes on Michigan State next Saturday in a second tussle between a pair of Top 10 teams.

The top ten in this week's poll with points on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis (first place votes and won-lost records in parentheses):

Birdie Quoted As Taking Brave Front Office Job

Cincinnati (AP) — The Cincinnati Enquirer Monday night quoted former baseball manager Birdie Tebbetts saying he has taken an executive job with Milwaukee's Braves.

Sports Editor Lou Smith, in a dispatch from New York, said Tebbetts told him the announcement of his appointment as executive assistant to president Joe Cairnes will come in the next few weeks.

He quoted the former Cincinnati Redleg field boss saying:

"It's costing me in the neighborhood of $40,000 to accept my new position but I'm sure over a period of years it will pay off for me, both from a financial and health standpoint."

Smith said Tebbetts told him he had an attendance clause in his Redleg contract and indicated he made over $50,000 in 1956 and 1957, the two years the homer-hitting Reds drew over a million fans at home.

Asked about the story present Brave manager Fred Haney would resign if Tebbitts takes the office job, Tebbetts said:

"That kind of x x x "scuttlebutt hardly merits a denial. Fred and I have been friends and will continue to be.

"We've had differences at times, but that's the rule rather than the exception among managers."

Is it possible Tebbitts might be a threat to take over Haney's job? Smith quoted the moon-faced Tebbetts saying:

"That's one worry Haney will never have.

"I'll never manage a major league club again. I've had it. And that, you bet your last dime on."

Smith said Tebbetts figures the Braves to be the big National League threat for at least 5 years.

Tebbetts said, "their farm clubs are loaded with standout youngsters and during the last season they spent slightly in excess of a million dollars for bonus players.

Tebbetts also said he is still trying to sell his home in Nashua, N.H., where he has had an insurance business in the off-season.

Tebbetts, manager of the Reds since 1954, resigned suddenly last Aug. 14 when his team, after a prolonged slump, was in last place.

Reese Playing Days May End

Louisville, Ky. (AP) — Pee Wee Reese, longtime star infielder of the Los Angeles Dodgers, said Monday his baseball-playing days may be over. He added he probably would turn to coaching or scouting.

"I don't think I'd like to manage at all," said Reese, often mentioned as a possible Dodger manager. "It's insecure."

Reese, 39, played little this year.

He said he discussed his future with Dodger officials before leaving Los Angeles for his off-season home here. "We didn't decide anything, and we'll all do plenty more talking before we do decide."

BRAVE HOMECOMING ROUTINE

Milwaukee (AP) — The home of the Milwaukee Braves took it all in stride Monday night as the Braves and the New York Yankees flew here to continue the World Series in County Stadium Wednesday.

The Braves, who were walloped 7-0 by the Yankees in the 5th game of the series Monday, were greeted by about 400 fans at General Mitchell Field.

Despite their loss, the Braves seemed relaxed and cheerful.

Draped from the side of the passenger terminal was a lone banner, saying "Beat The Bums, Champs."

The Yankees, who arrived within minutes of the Braves, immediately boarded a bus for their quarters at Browns Lake Resort near Burlington, about 30 miles southwest of Milwaukee.

Many of the Braves had their own cars waiting for them and they drove directly home from General Mitchell Field.

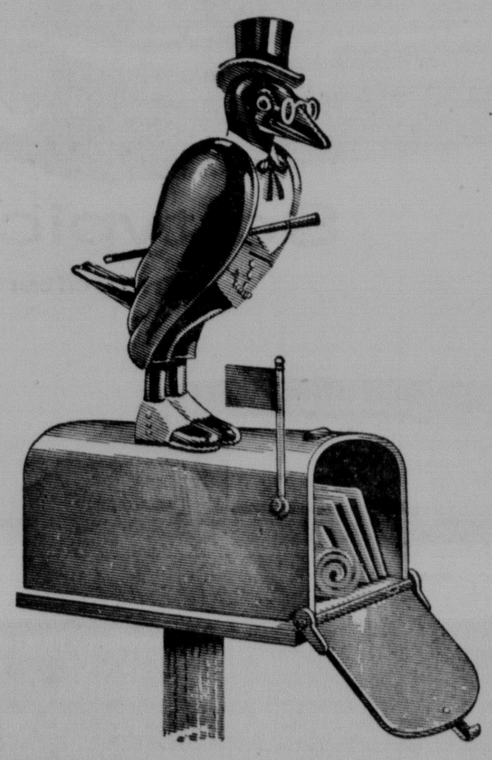

About 5 autos joined the Braves' chartered bus in an informal motorcade that moved rapidly downtown and then to County Stadium where some of the players had left their autos. About 100 people were waiting at the stadium.

"Looks like we broke up the shopping hour," said reserve catcher Del Rice.

$500,000 Wesleyan Student Building Started

First step in the construction of a $500,000 campus center for student activities was accomplished Monday at Wesleyan University with cornerstone laying ceremonies.

The Campus Center building was formally launched with double ceremonies, with dignitaries at the cornerstone site for the actual laying of the stone, and audience and speakers participating in an inside ceremony.

Over a thousand students, factuly members and guests participated in the inside ceremony, but only an honor party of six persons processed to the building site for the outside ceremony when President Rogers led in a formal litany by use of a remote control public address arrangement.

The new campus center has resulted from widespread student agitation 3 years ago which led to the students themselves voting to assess themselves each semester for the establishment of a Campus Center fund as a vote of good faith to the Board.

Lem T. Jones of Kansas City, Mo., partner in the Russell Stover Candy company and well-known Presbyterian layman and civic leader, spoke on the subject, "Free Men Build."

Defining freedom as "a condition which is immune from government coercion," Jones described "the secret weapon of freedom" as "the release of tremendous energy."

"The old empire had no small colleges," Jones said. "These were built by free men in America to serve God and their communities."

Participating in inside ceremonies were:

Dr. R. W. Deal, J. E. Bartley and President Rogers for the Wesleyan faculty and staff; Gary Knox and Mary Johnson for the Wesleyan student body; A. C. Etchberg for the State of Nebraska; Mayor Bennett Martin for the City of Lincoln; President Harold Hoppe for the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; W. Lee Greenslit for the Wesleyan Alumni Association. The Rev. K Orlando Lee for the Nebraska Annual Conference of the Methodist church; Melvin A. Pixley for the Board of Trustees; George W. Rosenlof for the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the Association of American Colleges; Mrs. A. B. Schultze for the Association of Wesleyan Parents; Fred S. Seacrest for the Lincoln Newspapers; Richard W. Smith for the Building committee and Chaplain L. E. Mattingly representing the Founders of Wesleyan.

Those participating in the outside ceremony, in addition to President Rogers, were:

Dr. Sam Dahl for the Wesleyan Faculty and Staff.

Bishom H. Bascom Watts for the Nebraska Annual Conference of the Methodist church.

J. D. Anderson for the Board of Trustees.

Warren Urbom for the Alumni Association.

Nancy Baldwin, Hebron senior, for the Wesleyan student body.

Growth Cited In Enrollment

. . . At Wesleyan

Student population at Nebraska Wesleyan University has grown 52% in 5 years, President Vance D. Rogers noted Monday in his fall report to the board of trustees.

From 650 in 1952, the student total increased to 986 in 1957 and now stands at an all-time high of 997, Dr. Rogers said.

Dr. Gauger Metcalf

He also noted that the school retained 100% of its faculty members this year and said this is indicative of high morale and general satisfaction for Wesleyan's program.

Among the 10 new staff members reported by Dr. Rogers are two acting department heads — Dr. Wendell L. Gauger in natural sciences and Richard W. Metcalf in business administration.

Other new staff members are:

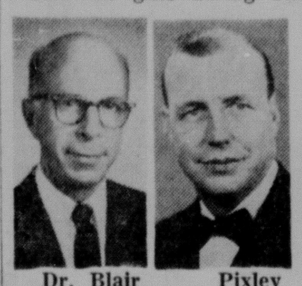

Henry H. Blanke, speech and drama.
Byron Havlicek, band and instrumental music.
Mrs. Phylis D. Johnson, woman's physical education.
Dwight C. Marsh, English.
Donovan M. Olson, mathematics.
Harold P. Sampson, forensics.
Dr. Arthur F. Westbrook, vocal music.
Mrs. Carol Puckett Work, instrumental music.

2 Alums Give $25,000

Two Californians—both Nebraska Wesleyan University alumni—have given a total of $25,000 to decorate 3 areas of the new Campus Center on the Lincoln campus.

Melvin A. Pixley of Maywood, Calif., donated $20,800, and Dr. T. S. Blair of Long Beach Park, Calif., gave a gift of $4,200.

President Vance Rogers revealed the gifts during The President's Moment at cornerstone laying ceremonies for the new building here Monday morning.

Dr. Blair Pixley

He said Dr. Blair's gift will demoralize the main entrance patio in honor of his sister, Mrs. LaBerta Blair Pixley.

Pixley has designated Dr. Blair as the honoree to be memorialized in the entrance vestibule and his daughter, Barbara Lou Pixley to be memorialized in the main floor lounge, with his $20,800 gift.

Pixley is a native of Lincoln and is now engaged in the transportation and real estate business in California. He is a graduate of the former Jackson High School and is a member of the Wesleyan Board of Trustees.

Dr. Blair, a native of Fairbury, graduated from Wesleyan in 1931. He was graduated from the University of Southern California School of Denistry and is engaged in the practice of dentistry in Huntington Park, Calif.

Wesleyan Events

President Vance D. Rogers outlined plans for a series of special events, which actually began Monday with cornerstone laying ceremonies for a new Campus Center with Lem T. Jones of Kansas City, Mo., as the speaker. Others:

The Willson Lectures opening Tuesday morning with Dr. Rockwell C. Smith as the lecturer.

Student-Business day Nob. 6 with Merle Jones of Beatrice as the speaker.

The Alumni Awards Convocation October 31 with Dr. Chris Keim of Oak Ridge, Tenn., as the speaker.

Founders Day, January 30, with Harold Warp of Chicago speaking.

A special convocation of a public nature February 13 at which General Buster Briggs, superintendent of the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., will appear.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

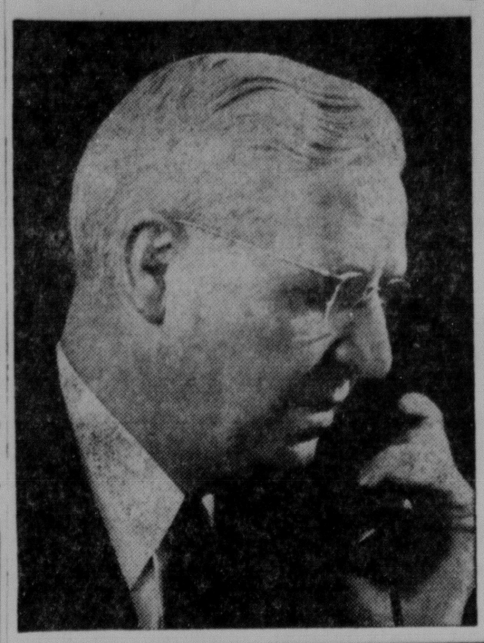

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

More State Aid For Soil, Water Sought

New Request Would Triple '57 Amount

Omaha (AP) — A move was launched Monday to have state aid for soil and water conservation development more than tripled.

Milton H. Fricke, president of the Nebraska Assn. of Soil and Water Conservation Districts, said the request is for $402,000.

Last year the state's 87 soil and watter conservation districts received $120,000.

Fricke, a Papillion farmer, told the association convention here that "we're getting about as much federal money as we'll ever get.

"This money," said Fricke of the money sought, "will be used for direct aid to the districts. Both technical and clerical help will be hired.

"In 20 years, Nebraska hasn't spent as much money for protecting its only resource (soil) as it costs to build one-half mile of Interstate Highway," he declared.

The association was also told that the soil bank concept is good, but we should do more with a water bank. The statement came from D. A. Williams, Washington, head of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

He suggested that water should be stored, "not behind dams, but in the soil."

Earl Luff, Lincoln industrialist, said Nebraska's development depends on its supply of water, adding: "Many areas are losing because adequate water doesn't exist."

Demo 'Fact Float' Preceding GOP Caravan Across State

Fairbury, Neb. — A dinner stop and overnight stay here Monday night marked the conclusion of the first day's activities for the Republican campaign caravan.

The 12-car caravan will travel 6,000 miles into all 93 counties of Nebraska before election day.

After leaving Lincoln early Monday, the caravan reached Beatrice for a breakfast meeting attended by 83 persons.

Master of ceremonies at Beatrice was State Republican Chairman Richard E. Spelts Jr. of Grand Island, who introduced Gov. Victor Anderson, U.S. Sen. Roman Hruska, Rep. Phil Weaver of Falls City, 1st district congressman, and Gov. Anderson's Statehouse associates.

From Beatrice the caravan went to Tecumseh, Auburn, Falls City, Humboldt, Pawnee City and Wymore.

Opening the caravan attack, Sen. Hruska and Rep. Weaver blamed Democrats for blocking legislation in the 85th Congress to control labor racketeering.

Farm Products' Prices Compared

Omaha (AP) —Nebraska Democrats sprung their answer to the Republican "truth squad" on GOP campaign caravaners Monday.

Robert Conrad, executive secretary of the Democratic State Committee, said the Democrats have launched a "Fact Float" which is covering the GOP campaign caravan route a few hours ahead of the vote-hunting Republicans.

First stop on the "fact float" itinerary Monday was Beatrice, which was similarly the first stop on the Republican campaign caravan route.

Conrad said the truck carries a huge sign listing comparative prices of farm products today as compared with 1952 and a comparison of costs to present day prices.

County Attorney Makes 2nd Visit To Vets Hospital

Omaha (AP) — Dodge County Attorney William Line made his second visit in two days to Omaha Monday afternoon to interview a patient at Veterans Hospital.

Line, with other Dodge County officials, is investigating the shootng and wounding last Thursday of Marshal Adolph Kempf, 50, of Dodge. Kempt is in good condition in an Omaha hospital.

The county attorney had "no comment" to almost all questions concerning the case. He refused to discuss results of any ballistics tests or whether he would return here for further questioning.

"I may have some statement to make Wednesday morning, but certainly not before then," he said.

He refused to discuss the man being treated in Veterans Hospital. The man suffered a seizure Saturday after being picked up by Cuming County officers.

Cuming County Sheriff Herman Heiman said a .22 caliber pump rifle was found in the man's car. Kemp was wounded by a .22 caliber bullet as he sat in his car in the Dodge business district.

Earlier Monday the county attorney said investigation in the case was continuing in Dodge, Lincoln and Omaha.

Ranchers Mark Dedication Of $162,000 Sandhills Road

Lakeside, Neb. (AP) — A 6-year drive for an oiled road from Lakeside to Smith Lake became a reality for ranchers over a wide area when the road was dedicated at a special celebration.

Nebraska News

The dedication of the $162,000 road was as the Joy Rranch about 15 miles north of here. More than 400 persons took part in the dedication and remained for a beef barbecue and evening dance.

The long effort for such a road was spearheaded by the South Sheridan County Highway Assn. Mrs. Ruth Hooper, association president, cut the ribbon opening the road.

The federal government put up $81,000 of the cost. The balance was collected from ranchers, by precinct levies, from Sheridan County and by donations from Alliance and Rushville residents.

STOCKS HIT 5th NEW HIGH

New York (AP)—The stock market climbed to another record peak Monday, the fifth in six sessions.

Coppers, steels, motors and chemicals were pacemakers. Airlines spurted early in the day as they basked in news about the start of transatlantic commercial jet service. They turned mixed by the close.

As leading issues rose fractions to more than 2 points, selected stocks made wider gains.

The advance added an estimated $1,400,000,000 to the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, based on the rise in The Associated Press average. The rise was the best in a week.

The AP 60-stock average rose $1.10 to the historic peak of $197.20 with the industrials up $1.60 to an all-time high, the rails up 80 cents and the utilities up 30 cents, both new tops for 1958.

The Dow Jones industrials average advanced 2.56 to a record 536.29.

Volume was 3,570,000 shares compared with 3,830,000 Friday.

Of 1,217 issues traded, 632 rose and 367 fell. There were 167 highs for the year and 5 new lows.

Eleven of the 15 most active stocks rose, three fell and one was unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices were higher on volume of 1,130,000 shares compared with 1,180,000 Friday.

BOND MARKET

New York (AP)—Long range U.S. government bonds rebounded from 1958 lows in quiet trading Monday. Gains extended to more than 1¼ points in some cases.

Corporates closed mixed with a tendency toward the downside in active dealings. Utilities posted a slight advance and rails and foreign bonds were steady. Investment quality issues and industrials declined.

Bond market observers called the government rally a technical adjustment to a two-week slide to 1958 lows. No great number of bonds changed hands, they said.

Grain Futures Finish Lower

Chicago (AP)— With the exception of the distant July and September wheat deliveries, all grain futures finished lower on the Board of Trade Monday.

While the nearer bread grain contracts dipped for losses up to a half cent a bushel, the deferred deliveries held steady, mainly on a private report issued last week which indicated a cut back in the number of acres going into winter wheat.

At the close wheat was ¼ higher to ½ lower, Dec. $1.94⅛; corn ¼ to ⅝ lower, old style Dec. $1.13-13⅛; oats ⅛ to ⅜ lower, Dec. 63¾; rye ⅞ to 1⅜ lower, Dec. $1.30½-¼, and soybeans ½ to 1¼ lower, Nov. $2.15¼-⅛.

Bus Firm Asks Change In Schedule

The Transcontinental Bus System, Inc., of Wichita, Kan., proposes to revise its bus schedule serving such Nebraska points as Lincoln, Beatrice, Blue Springs and Wymore, the State Railway Commission reported Monday.

The bus line has asked authority to discontinue certain local service runs between the Nebraska points while adding two new runs to its through service between Lincoln and Marysville, Kan.

Any objections to the proposal will be accepted until Oct. 10 and a public hearing will be called if deemed necessary, according to John R. Thompson, acting director of the commission's Motor train compartment.

For Beatrice, the effect of the proposal would be to reduce service from the 4 trips each way daily, to three trips each way daily.

Transcontinental proposes to distontinue these 6 local runs:

1. Leaving Lincoln at 8 p.m. and arriving in Beatrice at 9 p.m. with flag stops at Princeton and Cortland.
2. Leaving Lincoln at 2:15 p.m. stopping at Princeton, Cortland and Beatrice, and arriving at Wymore at 3:50 p.m.
3. Leaving Beatrice at 10:10 a.m., stopping at Wymore and arriving at Blue Springs at 10:42 a.m.
4. Leaving Blue Springs at 10:42 a.m., stopping at Wymore, Beatrice, Cortland and Princeton and arriving in Lincoln at 12:25 p.m.
5. Leaving Wymore at 4 p.m. and arriving at Beatrice at 4:30 p.m.
6. Leaving Beatrice at 6 p.m. and arriving in Lincoln at 7 p.m. after stops at Princeton and Cortland.

The two new through service runs proposed incluude one which would leave Lincoln at 12:15 p.m. and stop at Cortland, Beatrice, Blue Springs and Wymore before arriving at Marysville, Kan., at 2:19 p.m.

The other would leave Marysville at 3:35 a.m., stop at Beatrice at 4:30 a.m., make flag stops at Cortland and Princeton and arrive in Lincoln at 5:30 a.m.

The present through schedules, which would be retained, include runs leaving Lincoln at 5:30 p.m. and 10:15 a.m., and leaving Marysville at 7:30 a.m. and 2:01 p.m. Blue Springs and Wymore are not served on these runs.

Lincolnite Finds Real Cool Way To Miss Jury Duty

If you've ever wondered how to avoid serving on a jury a 27-year-old Lincoln man has the answer to your problem.

Lancaster District Judge Harry A. Spencer was informed by Mrs. Chester E. Thomas Sr. of 4230 Touzalin that her son, Chester Jr., simply would not be able to serve on the two-week jury term which started Monday.

But Judge Spencer was understanding about it. He decided since Chester E. Thomas Jr. was a Boatswain's Mate Second Class serving with the Navy at the South Pole it wasn't necessary he serve.

But another 71 Lancaster County residents busy on the "home front" were selected as jurors. Forty-nine of the original panel of 120 prospective jurors were excused.

Jurors selected for duty at the two-week term:

Mrs. Helen G. Abbott, 2625 Scott Ave.
John L. Abbott, 2211 St. Marys Ave.
Mrs. Barbara J. Allen, 1840 So. 17th.
Geo. C. Allgaier, 2541 N.

Over-Capitalizing Farm Industry 'Top Problem'

. . . 'Crop Surplus' Not All Black'

Omaha (AP)—A government crops expert said Monday the major farm problem today is the tendency to "over-capitalize the farm industry."

This tendency has been displayed by government, the producer, handler and processor.

This comment came from Clarence D. Palmby, deputy administrator of price supports for the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

When you have capital invested, Palmby said, you have to have a return and the market now is unable to keep pace with the supply.

Palmby and Roy F. Hendrickson, executive secretary of the national federation of grain co-operatives, said the crop surplus situation is not all black. . . .

"Although we live in perilous times and realize food is an important feature in defense," Hendrickson said, "most intelligent people admit the carryover doesn't have to be as large as it is."

The two men were in Omaha to address the day-long session of the Westcentral Co-Operative Grain Co.

Dr. L. M. McNally, president of the 7-state firm for the past 20 years, was re-elected to another term.

Other officers, also re-elected, include: Alberg Schroeder, Venango, vice president; Walter W. Peterson, Chappell, secretary, and L. H. Baer, Omaha, treasurer.

Huff Trial Start Likely Next Month

Omaha — Leo Huff Jr., former Omaha Airport manager, probably will go to trial during the week of Nov. 24, according to Deputy Douglas County Attorney Donald Knowles.

Huff is charged with one count of grand larceny and two counts of unlawful solicitation. He has pleaded not guilty to all 3 counts.

He is charged with theft of two city-owned air conditioners valued at $454.68. The unlawful solicitation charges stem from accusations Huff accepted money for promises of airport land leases.

Huff is free on bond of $1,500 on the grand larceny charge and $1,000 on the other two charges.

Seaton, Benson Are Said Likely '60 Candidates

Washington (AP) — Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb) said Monday Interior Secretary Seaton and Agriculture Secretary Benson appear to be possible candidates for the Republican vice presidential nomination in 1960.

Miller said some groups think Benson is doing a good job in the Agriculture Department. He listed these as some consumers, corn farmers and livestock growers.

Earlier this year Miller was among a group of midwestern congressmen who contended that Benson was a liability to the party.

Asked how he felt about Benson, Miller said he would support him if he were on the GOP ticket, but added:

"I think we might get a stronger and better candidate, probably will."

The congressman then said Seaton, a native Nebraskan, was "definitely in the picture and I'd prefer him to Benson."
